Location & Local Information

Casa Stella is located in the quiet hamlet of Malhao, just 4km across the almond and orange groves and pine forest from the delightful village of Boliquieme. Boliquieme is charming with a few delightful restaurants and bars as well as some helpful shops. The picturesque Paderne is 9km from the villa.

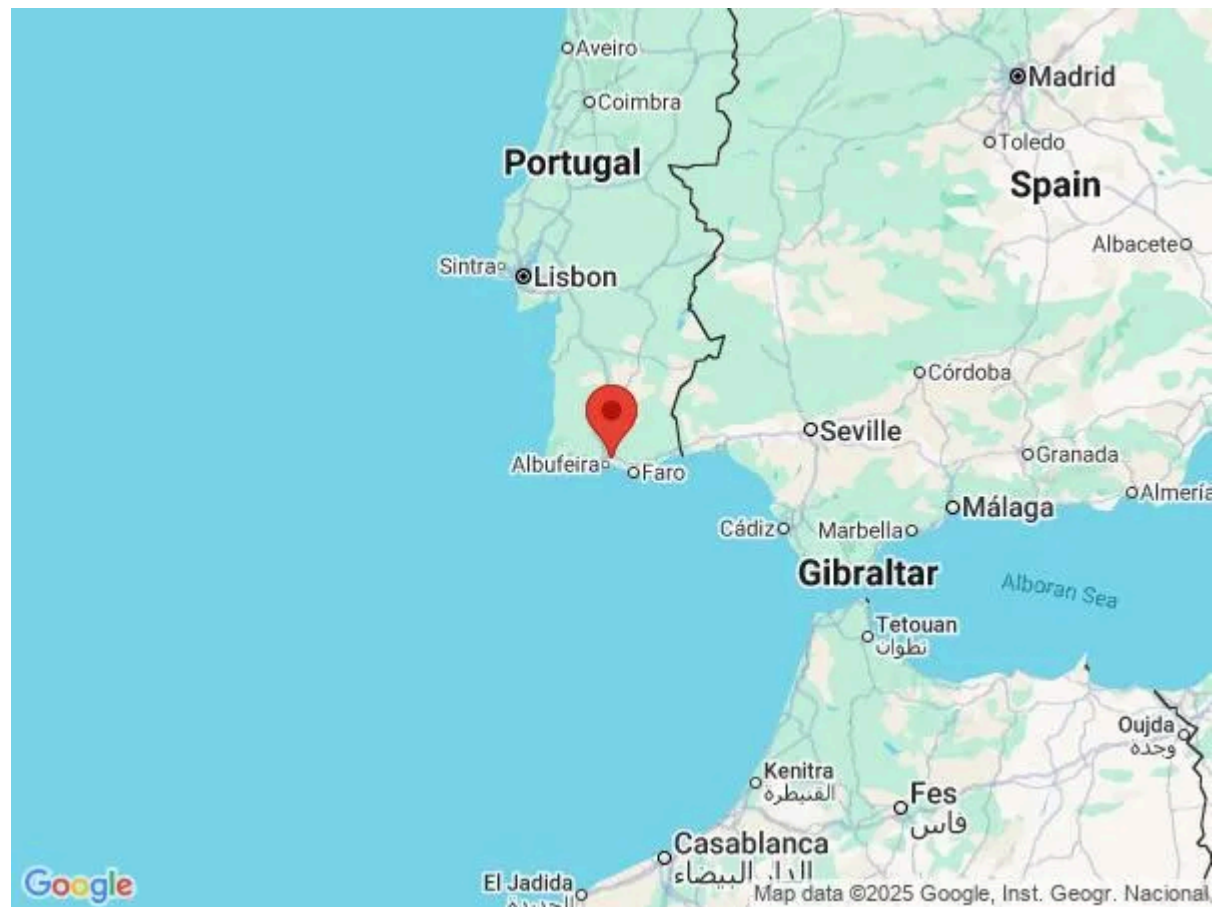

The nearest beach, Olhos d'Agua, is 12km from the villa. Vilamoura and Albufeira, roughly 14km away, also offer some beautiful beaches. You can visit the lovely Quinta do Lago lagoon where Artur's Watersports Academy offers surf camps, kids clubs, sailing lessons, pedalos, kayaks and a fun water obstacle course. If you have time, we definitely recommend that you visit the Ria Formosa Nature Park. You can take little ferry boats across to the stunning beaches on the small islands just off the coast.

A popular outing is to the lovely villages of Almancil and the neighbouring Sao Lourenco. Almancil is known for its pottery, so it's a great place to buy a few souvenirs. The Sao Lourenco Church's stunning azulejo work dates back to 1730 and is beautiful. The characteristic blue tiles tell the life of its patron saint.

The quaint, historical town of Loule is another great place to visit. It boasts a characterful historic centre and a colourful, Moorish inspired covered market which sells handicrafts as well as local produce and fresh fish. Loule is buzzing on Saturday mornings when there is also a farmer's market and a colourful gipsy market.

For a sophisticated night out you can head to the chic, impressive marina at Vilamoura. It is lined with classy restaurants and vibrant, buzzy bars. You can take some amazing boat trips from the marina to dolphin watch, fish, partake in watersports or to view the magnificent coastline. The charming Old Town is great for a wander, and those fancying their luck can visit the casino.

There are over 100 restaurants and bars in Albufeira. It is very busy. You may also enjoy excellent boutique shopping, in particular at the Albufeira Shopping Mall. The beautiful beaches and Albufeira's impressive promenade attract many visitors. The main square, Jardim Publico de Albufeira, boasts open-air restaurants, cafes and bars and frequent live music. The nightlife continues late into the night, especially around the hedonistic 'Strip'.
