Copper Crest

Region: The South West Sleeps: 4

Overview

Copper Crest is named for the rich copper deposits found in the surrounding cliffs, giving the area a unique red hue that will, over time, transform to a distinguished green patina. Until then, guests can enjoy the natural beauty of this unique setting, surrounded by striking scenery and panoramic sea views. Nestled in Dorset's stunning Portland stone cliffs, Copper Crest is the perfect base for those ready to explore the iconic Jurassic Coast and all the county has to offer.

Built in 2020 as part of the exclusive Clifftops development, Copper Crest is one of five luxury lodges perched on the cliffs. With accommodation set across two levels, this contemporary home comfortably sleeps up to four guests in two beautifully appointed bedrooms. The open-plan living area features a bespoke fireplace, a Samsung smart TV, and a fully equipped kitchen with dining facilities. Large windows flood the home with natural light, allowing guests to savor breathtaking coastal views throughout. The king-size master bedroom includes an en-suite, while the flexible second bedroom offers either a super-king or twin singles and shares a luxurious family bathroom.

After days spent exploring Dorset's treasures, guests can relax on the private terrace with a quiet drink, surrounded by the captivating views of the sea and cliffs. Copper Crest promises a luxurious retreat in an unforgettable natural setting.

Location & Local Information

Copper Crest is situated on the Isle of Portland, the most southernmost point on the Jurassic coast, a tied island joined to the mainland by Chesil beach. Despite being relatively small in size, there is plenty to see, do and explore without even leaving the isle, enjoy a visit to the 16th century Portland Castle, Rufus Castle or Portland Bill Lighthouse or simply choose to spend afternoons lazing in the sun on Church Ope Cove.

The seaside town of Weymouth is just a 20-minute drive away, a resort hugely popular with families and it's easy to see why with its golden sand beaches, sand sculptures, crazy golf and Sea Life Centre. Further afield, the popular market town of Lyme Regis is an hours' drive away while dramatic West Bay, made famous from the ITV series Broadchurch, is just 50-minutes away.

After a day of exploration, Copper Crest provides a comfortable space to relax and unwind. With its tranquil setting and impressive views, it serves as the perfect retreat for friends or couples seeking a memorable getaway.
