Silver Cove

Region: The South West Sleeps: 4

Overview

Silver Cove is named in celebration of the natural environment and the estate's only historic woodland, "Silva" meaning "forest" in Latin. This enchanting woodland leads down to the secluded cove, while the home's location overlooks the most abundant clifftop wildflowers, drawing in the unique Portland butterflies. This contemporary retreat is the perfect base for exploring Dorset's iconic Jurassic Coast and all the beauty the county has to offer.

Built in 2020, Silver Cove is part of a luxury Clifftop development, five luxury lodges nestled into the Portland stone cliffs. With the accommodation set across two levels, Silver Cove can comfortably accommodate up to four guests across two well-appointed bedrooms. The living space is open-plan and features a bespoke fireplace, a Samsung smart TV and a fully-equipped kitchen with dining facilities. The king-size master bedroom features its own en-suite facilities, while guest staying in the second king-size bedroom, can make use of the luxurious family bathroom.

Outside, after action-packed days spent having fun on the beach, the private terrace is the perfect place to enjoy a quiet beverage while admiring the stunning sea views.

Location & Local Information

Silver Cove is situated on the scenic Isle of Portland, the southernmost point of the Jurassic Coast, connected to the mainland by the stunning Chesil Beach. Despite its small size, the island offers a wealth of attractions, including historical sites like the 16th-century Portland Castle, Rufus Castle, and the iconic Portland Bill Lighthouse. The seaside town of Weymouth is just a 20-minute drive away, famous for its golden sandy beaches, sand sculptures, crazy golf, and the popular Sea Life Centre.

If you're up for a bit more exploration, the charming market town of Lyme Regis is an hour's drive away, while the dramatic cliffs of West Bay, featured in the ITV series Broadchurch, can be reached in just 50 minutes.
