

Baronial Mansion

Region: Highlands Sleeps: 10

Overview

This magnificent Baronial mansion, built in the 1890s, offers a unique blend of historic grandeur and modern luxury, surrounded by mature woodland with access to a picturesque river walk. Facing northeast, the mansion boasts open views across fields, while the drawing room, dining room, and two main bedrooms overlook the Cromarty Firth. Accommodating up to 10 adults, this property is ideal for gatherings and retreats.

Inside, the house retains its historic charm with turrets, parapets, and antique furnishings. Guests are welcomed into a grand hall featuring a piano and open fire. The elegant drawing room offers comfortable seating, while the dining room, with a gas log fire and large table, is perfect for special occasions. Entertainment options include a TV lounge, library bar with a cocktail fridge, snooker table, darts, and books. A gym with a sauna, and a music room housing a Bechstein grand piano and other instruments, complete the impressive amenities.

The fully-equipped kitchen features a gas cooker, twin fridge/freezers, and a wine fridge, with a cosy breakfast area by a wood-burning stove. Upstairs, five beautifully furnished bedrooms include a luxurious master suite with a four-poster bed, en-suite bathroom, and dressing room. Other bedrooms include elegant four-posters and a family room, all with modern bathroom facilities.

Outside, private lawns surround the house with a sun terrace, pergola with BBQ, and a children's play area. Guests can enjoy croquet, badminton, and direct access to the river for scenic walks. Anglers will love the rare opportunity for complimentary salmon and trout fishing just steps from the house.

This enchanting estate combines timeless elegance with unforgettable experiences, perfect for your next getaway.
