Stepping inside this home for the first time you'll be struck by the sublime openness, with huge high ceilings and multi-level rooms, surrounded by double length windows inviting in the light and wonderful views of your surroundings. From your superb lounge you can admire the leafy hilltops of Faliraki, while this elegant dining area offers a perfect view of the sea, so you can watch the yachts and the fishermen gently making their way in and out of the bay as you dine. The contemporary kitchen offers all the latest mod cons like a coffee machine and dishwasher to ensure your holiday maximises fun and relaxation with less of the day-to-day!

And when it's time to catch some rest before the next big day of adventure on Rhodes, head up this stunning marble staircase and find yourself in one of these four enchanting bedrooms. Three doubles and one twin room provide a little flexibility for all kinds of groups - and the rooms themselves are sublime! The master suite has a huge cosy bed at its heart, with its far wall replaced by huge windows that look out over the hills in the distance and the beautiful town in the foreground. Meanwhile there's a second double with garden access and a big wall of wardrobes, similarly the twin room has tons of storage space too, so the rooms feel fabulously spacious! Likewise these two bathrooms are large and wonderful, one featuring an oversized bathtub, and the other a walk in shower!

Heading out to this incredible garden, your fantastic private pool certainly steals the show! Surrounded by loungers so you can relax and soak up the sunshine in between soothing dips, it's the perfect place to spend the day together, chatting and spending quality time in the most beautiful environment. But that's certainly not where the fun stops! All throughout the garden, on its many levels of terraces and balconies, there are tucked away spots for a peaceful coffee in the morning, or sunset cocktails as you gaze out over the town! A superb alfresco dining area invites you to cook up a storm in the wonderful kitchen and tuck into it in this most stylish spot by your pool! You'll also find plenty of lively bars, restaurants and cafes nearby, including several within walking distance in Faliraki, if you'd rather head out for a bite to eat or a few drinks!

Stretching 5 whole kilometres across, dazzling in the sunshine, this enormous beach offers absolutely everything to its many visitors. Whether you're after a paddle or a swim, some quick bites to eat, or even a full-blown night out with bars and clubs galore, Faliraki beach is the place for you! And it's not just what's on the land that counts - as Faliraki beach also offers its many visitors a fantastic water sports scene, too! So try your hand at sea kayaking, perfect your surfing skills, or simply pick up a snorkelling set and see what you can find in these stunning waters!

For more cultural visits, just a short drive inland from Faliraki is the fascinating archaeological site at Sarantapichos, near to the beautiful village of Kalithies. Just outside Faliraki on the scenic hills, meanwhile, there's also the old monastery of the Prophet Amos which is a beautiful spot for a wander!

What's more – Rhodes Town is less than 8 miles away, putting the lively, thriving city within very easy reach for a day trip! The old town of Rhodes promises fantastic sites, including the Palace of the Prince Grand Master, the Street of Knights and the Fortifications. Or for a little nature, head out to the Valley of the Butterflies, around half an hour away, which alongside showcasing tons of coloured moths is a fabulously tranquil and beautiful protected area.

Comprising two entirely separate parts, Rhodes Town is a fabulously varied city. A medieval time capsule on the one hand, and a vibrant, modern town on the other, guests of all dispositions will find something to enjoy and explore here. Incredible architecture, friendly vendors and welcoming restaurants make for a thoroughly enjoyable visit! The high walls and deep moat that surround the Old Town add to its incredible charm, not to mention the relics of the Classical, Ottoman and Italian eras dispersed throughout!

Or take a trip south to the stunning Lindos Acropolis, high up on the hilltop and overlooking the stunning sea below, these ruins of an ancient citadel are unmissable! And, one of the most beautiful beaches on the island, the Lindos beach is well worth visiting if you're down this way!
