

Villa Bonjo

Region: Imotski Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Bonjo is a charming countryside retreat in the tranquil village of Zezevika, situated between Omis and Makarska. Sleeping up to six guests, it combines old-world character with modern comforts, offering inviting living spaces, exposed stone, and antique furnishings.

Outside, a heated pool with massage jets nestles in a botanical garden of over four hundred plant species, alongside a pond with fish and turtles. Guests can enjoy alfresco dining, a traditional outdoor kitchen, and a playground featuring swings, a slide, and a trampoline. Three mountain bikes are also available for exploration of the Biokovo Nature Park. The nearby Brela and Baska Voda beaches offer both peaceful and lively seaside experiences.

For added luxury, guests can book grocery delivery, a private chef, in-villa massages, sailing trips, or boat tours. Villa Bonjo promises privacy, enchanting gardens, and a unique atmosphere for an unforgettable Croatian escape.

Location & Local Information

Villa Bonjo sits in the tranquil Biokovo Natural Park at Zezevika, offering breathtaking mountain and countryside views in complete privacy. The villa's lush garden and pool create a serene retreat, while the Dalmatian coast, including Brela's tree-lined beaches and Baska Voda's charming promenade, is just thirty minutes away. Nearby villages like Bast and Topici offer artisanal delicacies, and the historic towns of Split and Omis invite exploration of narrow streets, ancient fortresses, and vibrant markets.

For adventure, the Cetina River canyon provides thrilling activities such as canyoning, ziplining, rafting, and kayaking through stunning scenery. Omis, known as the City of Pirates, delights visitors with medieval architecture, lively festivals, and gourmet dining. Whether you seek relaxation by the pool or adrenaline-fuelled excursions, Villa Bonjo's location offers an unforgettable Croatian holiday.

What we love

- Villa Bonjo's botanical garden is such a wonder! With over 400 varieties of lush colourful plants, a magical pond with turtles and fish, a playground for children, a fabulous swimming pool and excellent alfresco dining and lounging, this garden is very hard to beat!
- The rural setting is so incredibly peaceful, not to mention totally private. With stunning views of the mountains and countryside, Villa Bonjo is a restful haven away from all the stresses and strains of everyday life
- The villa is absolutely charming. Ancient dressers meet olde world beams and tiles, exposed walls and other unique furnishings. With up to date bathrooms, you will enjoy a comfortable and privileged stay feeling as though you have met the real Croatia

What you should know...

- If you have 6 guests, 2 will be sleeping on the day beds in the living room
- The gardens and pool area are even more spectacular when lit up at night. You will not really want to spend any of your evenings indoors as the gardens and social spaces outside are an absolute delight!
- Children will love their stay at Villa Bonjo. They have a wonderful playground with a trampoline, swings, bridges and climbing as well as the swimming pool, fish and turtles to feed, mountain bikes and a lovely little snug area in the house where they can watch a film or enjoy a board game
