Each embodies the same intimate connection with the natural world around it, with soft, soothing colours and delicious textures from nature, ranging from rope to wood and soft cotton sheets. Several rooms lead you directly into this gorgeous garden, bursting with stylish spots to sit back and soak up the sunshine! The centrepiece is of course your delightful private pool! And thanks to an elegant garden wall, it really is beautifully private! All around it there's tons of space for making the most of the stunning garden and perfect weather. Sun loungers and the huge bed area over the pool are truly idyllic for sunbathing, while a fabulous alfresco dining area gives you truly the perfect spot to savour each mealtime in the sun or under the stars! Up on the terrace, meanwhile, casual seats make for the perfect spot for your morning coffee as you gaze over the tranquil surroundings.

The views from this incredible villa are simply unforgettable. Stretching out across the Aegean Sea, it's a sublime backdrop to your holiday! Location & Local Information Rhodes is an island of two halves. In the north, you'll find the bustling, popular towns and wild nightlife of hotspots like Faliraki.

Meanwhile, here in the tranquil south, life's much slower and more serene. Here the landscape is rugged and dramatic, with steep cliffs and vast plateaus. Amid the miles of untouched land are ancient ruins, each with its own history and impressive structure!

Along this south-eastern coast you will find countless opportunities for water sports, as well as more relaxing sunbathing, building sandcastles and paddling. Indeed, life congregates around this fantastic coastline, so you can truly experience all the best bits just on your doorstep! Whether you're into snorkelling or full-on scuba diving, you can enjoy the thriving beaches and sea life around you. In fact, the DiveMed Scuba Diving School is less than 10 minutes from the villa so you can definitely give it a try! Other fabulous water sports on offer are surfing, including wind-surfing and kite-surfing, and even jet-skiing, so there's bound to be something for everyone to enjoy! Although if being in the water isn't so much your thing, you'll also find plenty of glass-bottom boat excursions to enjoy it all from a little more of a distance!

A definite local highlight is the Prasonissi beach, undoubtedly one of the most impressive of all of Rhodes' beaches! Tucked at its southernmost end, it sees two sandy coves meeting to form a magnificent island that can only be reached by swimming, or walking when the weather and tides allow. As well as being a wonderful place to paddle in the shallow water, enjoy the sunshine and beautiful views of the sea and the mountains, it's also a surfer's paradise - as you'll see if you visit in July or August! Give it a go for yourself with boards and wetsuits to hire!

The Medieval Old Town of Rhodes is one of the oldest inhabited medieval cities in Europe, and sits side-by-side with the fabulous, if totally different, new town of Rhodes.

Within its high walls an intricate network of unique shops, quaint cafes and welcoming restaurants. And there's some unmissable buildings, too. The Palace of the Grand Master, with its striking entrance and beautifully well-preserved towers, stands out even among hundreds of equally historic sites. And its interiors are every bit as impressive!
