Location & Local Information

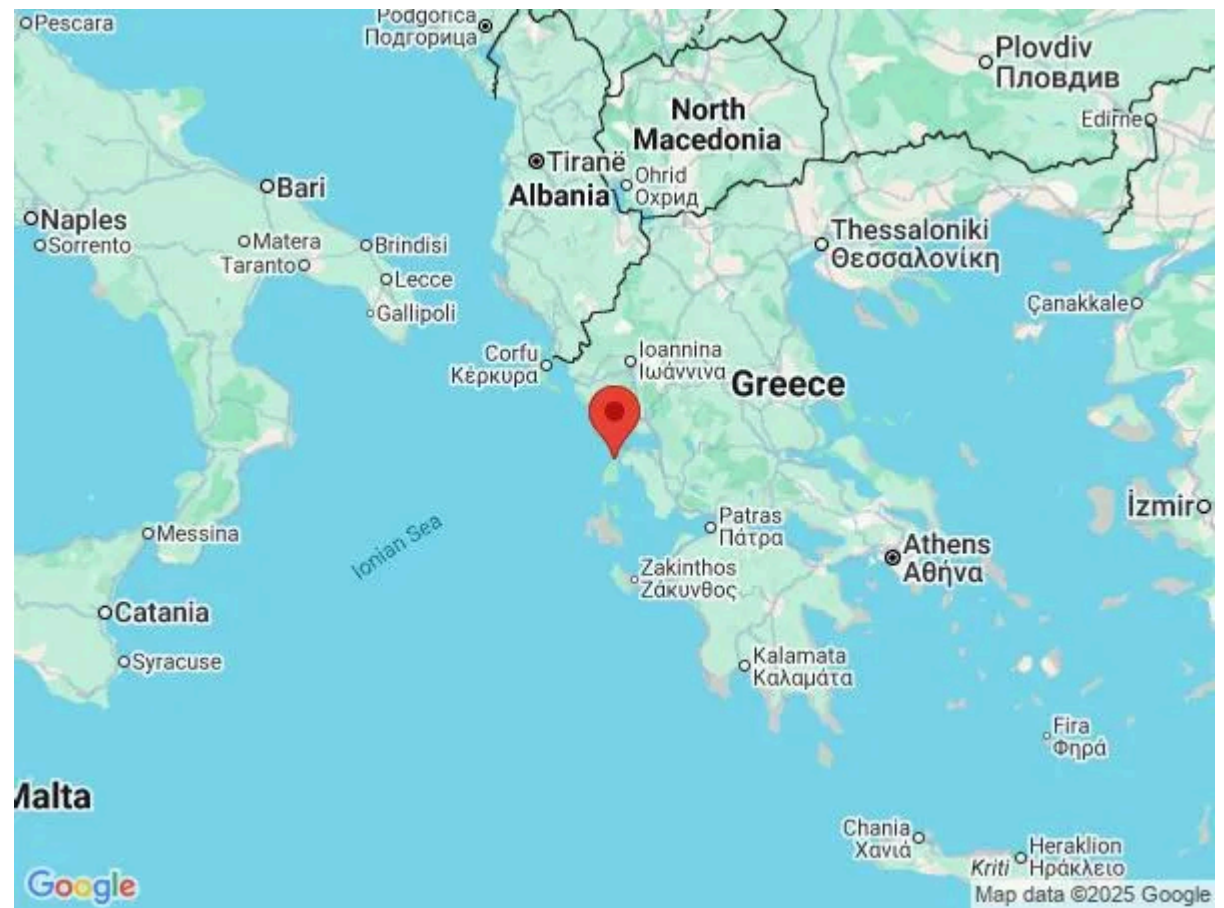

Tucked between Corfu and Kefalonia, Lefkada is one of the gems of the Greek islands, hidden away in the magnificent Ionian Sea.

Tsoukalades village is delightfully tucked in the mountains of the rich, verdant interiors, just a few minutes inland. Stone houses line the few small streets and create a perfect traditional picture among the fragrant pine trees which cascade down to the coast in a stunning sea of green. Take the beautiful forest path from the town down to the stunning Pefkoulia beach for a perfect morning in nature! This rich vegetation is sure to keep you cool on even the hottest summer's day! Recently the village has enjoyed a little more investment as tourism has slowly begun to increase in the area, with just enough amenities to make your stay a breeze, but still embodies the wonderfully quaint aura it's always had.

All around you meanwhile there are more touristic spots if you're after a little more action! Plenty of restaurants, small shops and tavernas can be found in the popular report of Agios Nikitas, around 12 minutes to the south west, on the coast. And then, of course, just around 15 minutes to the north east, there's the incredible Lefkada Town!

Enjoy the beautiful sights of the colourful buildings and narrow pedestrianised streets of the town, bursting with opportunities for a drink in an atmospheric taverna, or picking up stunning items in the many shops lining the streets. And then there's all the historical gems, like the old temples and churches built in the traditional style, ideal to explore on a sunny afternoon. With a population of less than 10,000, this is perfectly-sized town for exploring without the hustle and bustle of a larger city!

The foodies of the group will adore a stay on Lefkada. Like so much of Greece, the culinary scene is famous for its rich flavours and concoctions of Mediterranean delights. Feta and olive oil are universal, while all kinds of fresh fish, fragrant herbs, in-season fruits and crunchy greens, all found in the back garden of the average Greek, await your enjoyment. And as for drinks, it's got to be Ouzo and Raki, two grape based alcoholic drinks. Be sure to try one or the other in your time on the island, both firm favourites of the locals. And definitely don't miss the local food. It's a whole holiday in itself to try the varied, rich flavours across the island so get stuck in!

Whether in pavement cafes, cosy restaurants or the thriving town squares, the people love nothing more than to enjoy a coffee or an ouzo in the company of the local community. Such a warm, passionate people and such a beautifully sociable country, both young and old will welcome you with open arms in Greece
