

Villa Kato

Region: Lefkada Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Kato seamlessly combines elements of traditional architecture with contemporary comfort, located just a short distance from the Lefkada town centre. The spacious open-plan living area facilitates group gatherings, providing ample space for conversation, dining, and kitchen activities. Large doors open onto the terrace, extending the living space outdoors. The interior decor features a blend of natural materials and modern furnishings, creating a welcoming atmosphere with attention to detail.

The villa comprises three inviting bedrooms, each offering stunning sea views and direct access to either a terrace or the pool area. Every bedroom is accompanied by an ensuite bathroom for added convenience and privacy.

The well-maintained garden offers a tranquil retreat, with fragrant pine trees and panoramic views of the Ionian Sea. The focal point is the private pool, surrounded by a deck furnished with comfortable loungers. A pergola provides shade and frames the scenic vista, enhancing the outdoor experience.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in a serene setting, Villa Kato enjoys a prime location amidst lush surroundings, with views of the sea and convenient access to the nearby beach.

The neighbouring Tsoukalades village, just a short stroll away, offers a charming retreat nestled in the mountains. Stone houses line its quaint streets, blending seamlessly with the pine trees that adorn the landscape. A leisurely forest path leads from the village to the picturesque Pefkoulia beach, perfect for a tranquil morning in nature. While maintaining its traditional character, the village has seen some modest improvements in recent years to enhance the visitor experience.

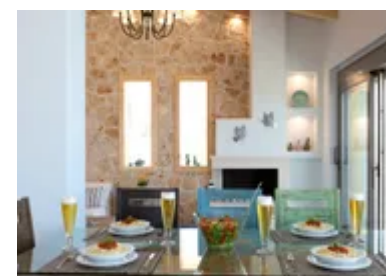

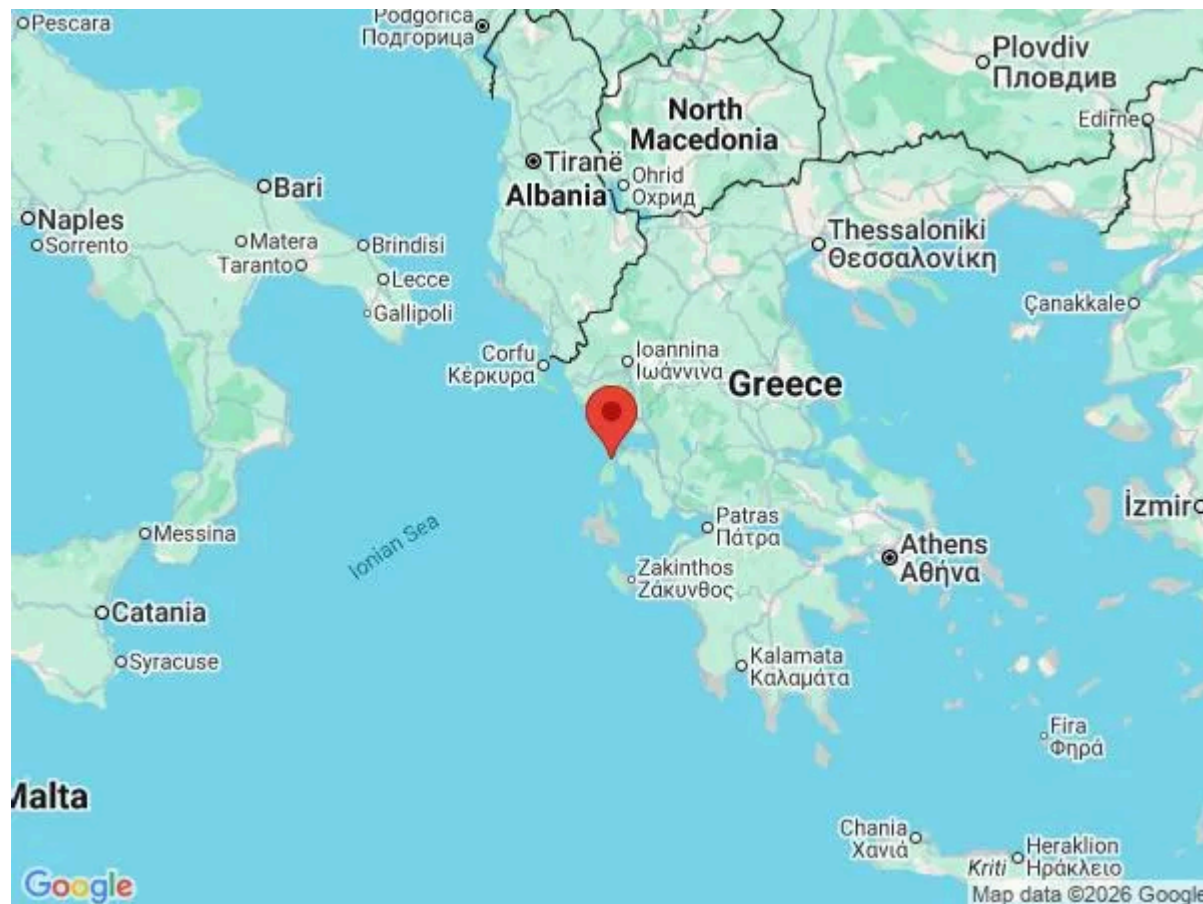

The village exudes a peaceful ambience, primarily residential with cosy tavernas and a bakery offering local delights. The nearby beach remains delightfully secluded, ideal for serene swims in the clear turquoise waters.

Lefkada, situated between Kefalonia and Corfu in the Ionian Sea, is renowned for its tranquil beauty. Dubbed 'The Caribbean of Greece,' it boasts breathtaking natural landscapes, providing ample opportunities for both adventure and relaxation. Spanning 35km north to south and 15km east to west, Lefkada offers diverse experiences, from the pristine expanses of the West Coast to the lively resorts and beautiful beaches of the East Coast.

For those seeking further exploration, regular car ferries connect Lefkada to nearby islands such as Kefalonia, Ithaca, and Meganissi, each offering unique perspectives of the stunning surroundings.

What we love

- This sublime infinity pool stretching across the garden makes for an incredible centrepiece to the stunning garden!
- Enjoy the rustic feel of this exposed stone feature wall alongside the modern kitchen set up while admiring the breath-taking sea views through the two sets of French doors!
- With an outdoor kitchen, a spectacular pergola, plenty of sun loungers and even more casual seating, and of course a huge pool, you'll adore spending time in your garden!

What you should know...

- Two of the bedrooms lead directly to the pool terrace, so take care if travelling with youngsters
- A sofa bed in two of the bedrooms can accommodate an extra guest each
