Location & Local Information

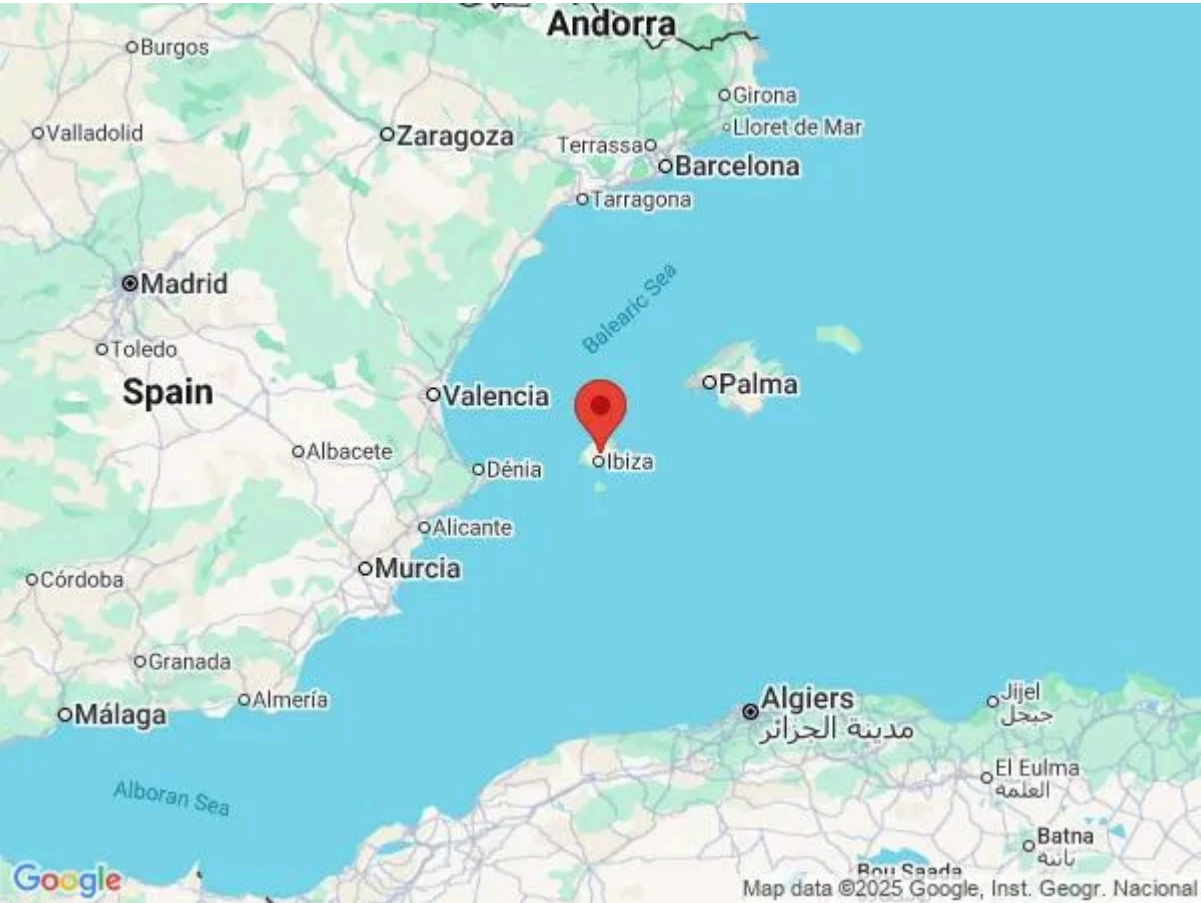

Santa Gertrudis de Fruitera, only 18 km from the main airport therefore only a short time from the airport to villa. We are sure you'll like it's boho-chic shops, its wide range of restaurants full of charm and its atmosphere, one of the most pleasant and cosmopolitan of all Ibiza. Santa Gertrudis de Fruitera has grown in the last few years, but it's still a small village with just a few streets distributed around the church with the same name, a simple temple built at the end of the XIX century. Despite its small size, Santa Gertrudis is very lively, especially in the late afternoon, when the heat starts to remit, and the terraces become full of travellers and residents from all parts of the island. This also happens out of season, and it is definitely a place that you will enjoy.

You don't have to walk a lot to enjoy a shopping afternoon since most of Santa Gertrudis' shops are on the traffic-free main street or around the church square. All shops are worth a visit as you are sure to discover unique items of clothing and artefacts.

If there is a full moon during your visit to Ibiza, pop into Santa Gertrudis and enjoy the so-called Full Moon of Art, a cultural event that offers live acts and a night market where numerous Ibiza artists and creators exhibit their work. It takes place in the church square, and it goes from 07:00 PM till midnight, check out the dates on the Ibiza tourism website.
