Location & Local Information

Villa Gem is situated just a five-minute drive from Kos Town, here there are an endless selection of excellent bars, restaurants and shops. A convenient supermarket is however located just 100m away from the villa – ideal for lazy days where you want to leave the car at home. Kos has a wide variety of beautiful beaches, the closest are again just a five-minute drive from Villa Gem. The airport is just a twenty minute drive from the villa.

The island’s tourist 'train' offers guided tours around the island, starting at Kos harbour working its way through the marine area, Kos main square, beaches, viewpoints and ancient sites giving a taster of what is on offer and allowing the less able to get around them easily, another trip heads to Asklepion.

Kos’s culture has evolved out of its rich ancient heritage. A place worth visiting is the Kos Castle of the Knights, the Nerantizia Castle dominates the islands main harbour and Kos town as you approach by boat. The perimeter walls and in particular the Nerantizia bridge are a very worthwhile visit despite the fact that the area within the walls has been closed to the public since a devastating earthquake in 2017. Kos is most famous for being the birthplace of Hippocrates, the father of modern medicine. The tree that he once taught under, the Hippocrates Plane Tree (one of the oldest trees in the world) still stands in Kos town and is revered by many visitors each year.
