Location & Local Information

Sutivan is located on the northwest coast of Brač, in front of Split on the mainland. Sutivan is a small, tranquil village with beautiful beaches. The pretty promenade runs from the little harbour Lucica to the bays of Likve, Prubuže, Stinive, Stipanske, Male Tihe and the Vicja Luka harbour. Sutivan is surrounded by olive groves, vineyards, mandarin fields and forests. Jakov Natalis-Bozicevic is a stunning building built in 1505 and the 17th century castle Kastil Marijanovic stands proud on the eastern part of the harbour. The summer cottage of Kavanjin was built between 1690 and 1705 with a pretty baroque garden. The village boasts several excellent restaurants and bars. A festival of extreme sports takes place in the village every May. The park is lovely with a small zoo as well as bowling, basketball, football and a small playground.

Milna is located on the north-west side of Brač. The Venetians called it 'Valle di mille navi' (the bay of a thousand ships) due to the welcoming bays of Milna. The stone houses along the stunning coastline are small masterpieces of plebeian architecture and the Baroque church with its typical Dalmatian bell tower is very beautiful. Milna will enchant you with its healthy Mediterranean cuisine, specialising in fresh fish, quality olive oil and home-made wines. You can enjoy sailing, fishing or scuba-diving from the harbours.

Also beautiful are the delightful coves of Osibova and Lucice, the Bobovisca harbour, Selca, Sumartin, Lozisce village and the nearby small island of Mrdulja situated at the entrance of the harbour.

Brač is famous for its very attractive, white stone. The famous White House in Washington is made from Brač stone. It is also famous for its 'buhavica' olive oil, cheese, wine, honey and wine. The Stina Winery on the waterfront at Bol is lovely and the Prosecco, a little like Australian muscat, is delicious.

Most famous of all though is the mesmerizing Zlatni Rat beach at Bol. Thanks to its particular shape, it one of the most exceptional beaches in the world. Zlatni Rat's elegance and appeal have made it the symbol of both the town of Bol and Croatia. The beach is protected by the government of Croatia as a geo-morphological monument.
