Villa Charoite

Region: Mykonos   Sleeps: 12

Overview

Set on a sprawling four-and-a-half-acre plot in St. John, just a short drive from Ornos Beach, Villa Charoite offers sweeping views over Little Venice and the Aegean Sea. Designed in classic Cycladic style, the villa showcases curved whitewashed walls, exposed beams, and natural stone detailing, creating an elegant yet relaxed atmosphere throughout.

Ideal for large groups, the villa features six serene bedroom suites, five on the ground floor, including three with private entrances, and one on the upper level. The mix of doubles and twins offers flexibility for families or friends, with each room opening to a terrace or balcony.

The interiors are light-filled and expansive, with open-plan living spaces flowing effortlessly between archways and columns. Statement features include a striking fireplace, a plush corner sofa, a sleek dining area, and an immaculate modern kitchen. Additional lounges provide quieter corners for reading or games.

Outside, the villa impresses with a large swimming pool framed by boulders, mature landscaping, and a choice of stylish daybeds and shaded lounge areas. Designed for relaxation and entertaining, this is a place to savour long alfresco meals, sunset views, and starlit evenings in complete privacy.

Location & Local Information

St John is a serene and scenic area on the western coast of Mykonos, set on a charming peninsula near Ornos, with far-reaching views across the sea towards the iconic Little Venice district of Mykonos Town. Ornos Beach, a mix of sand and pebbles, is home to a selection of inviting tavernas and bars, as well as a small stone harbour. From here, visitors can enjoy boat excursions along the island's striking coastline or venture to the nearby island of Delos. Fishing trips are also available.
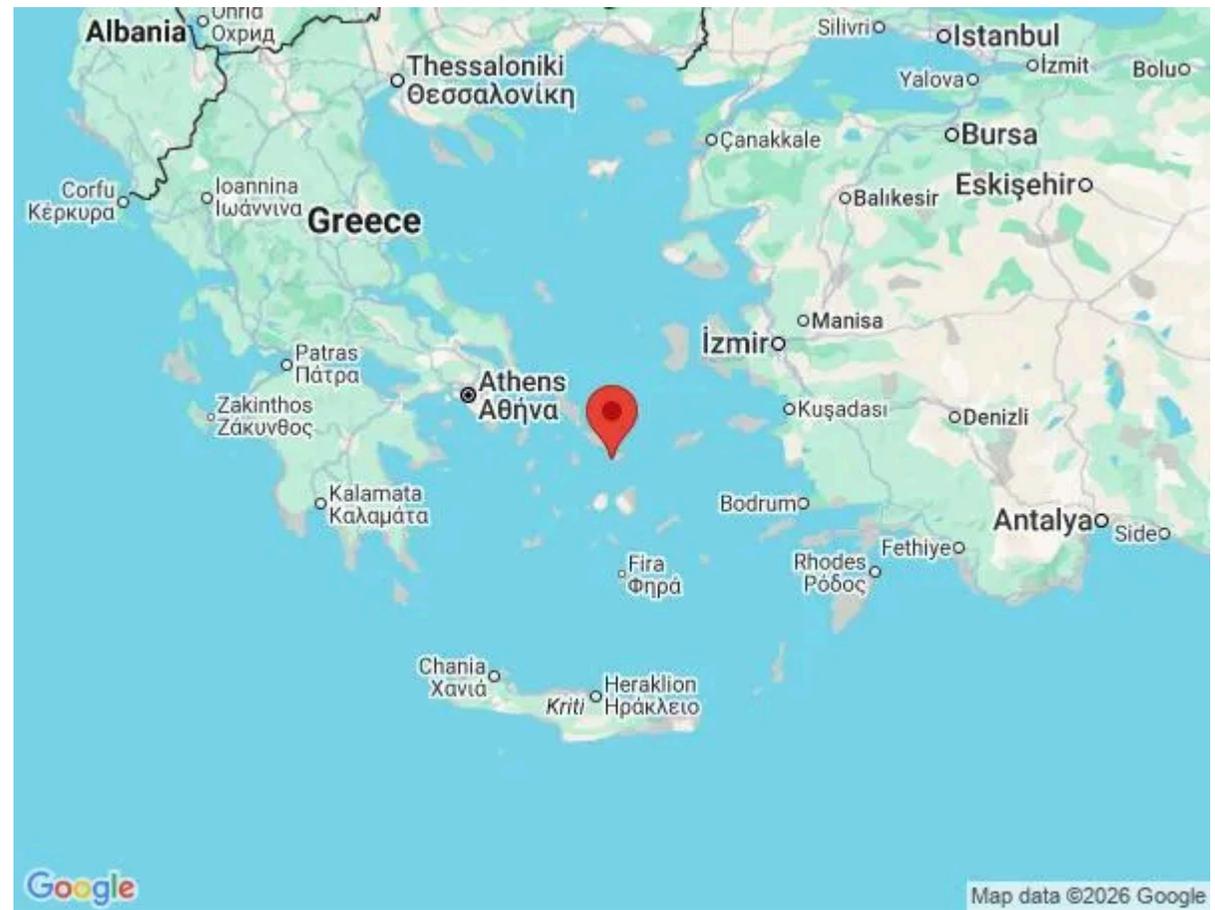

To the south, the celebrated beaches of Psarou, Paraga, Paradise and Super Paradise offer golden sands and lively atmospheres, while Paralia Korfos lies just north of Ornos, mere minutes from Villa Charoite.

Mykonos Town enchants with its maze of bougainvillaea-draped lanes, lined with whitewashed chapels, art galleries, boutique shops, jewellers and atmospheric restaurants. Cultural highlights include the Archaeological Museum and the Aegean Maritime Museum. The romantic charm of Little Venice, with its elegant sea-facing houses, continues to inspire artists and visitors alike. The town also offers an array of vibrant bars, beach clubs, and fine dining venues.

Further inland, the traditional village of Ano Mera provides a more tranquil experience, ideal for leisurely brunches and browsing local markets. Its standout attraction is the sixteenth-century Panagia Tourliani Monastery, renowned for its ornate bell tower, intricate marble and wood carvings, frescoes and impressive altar screen created by Florentine artisans.
