Location & Local Information

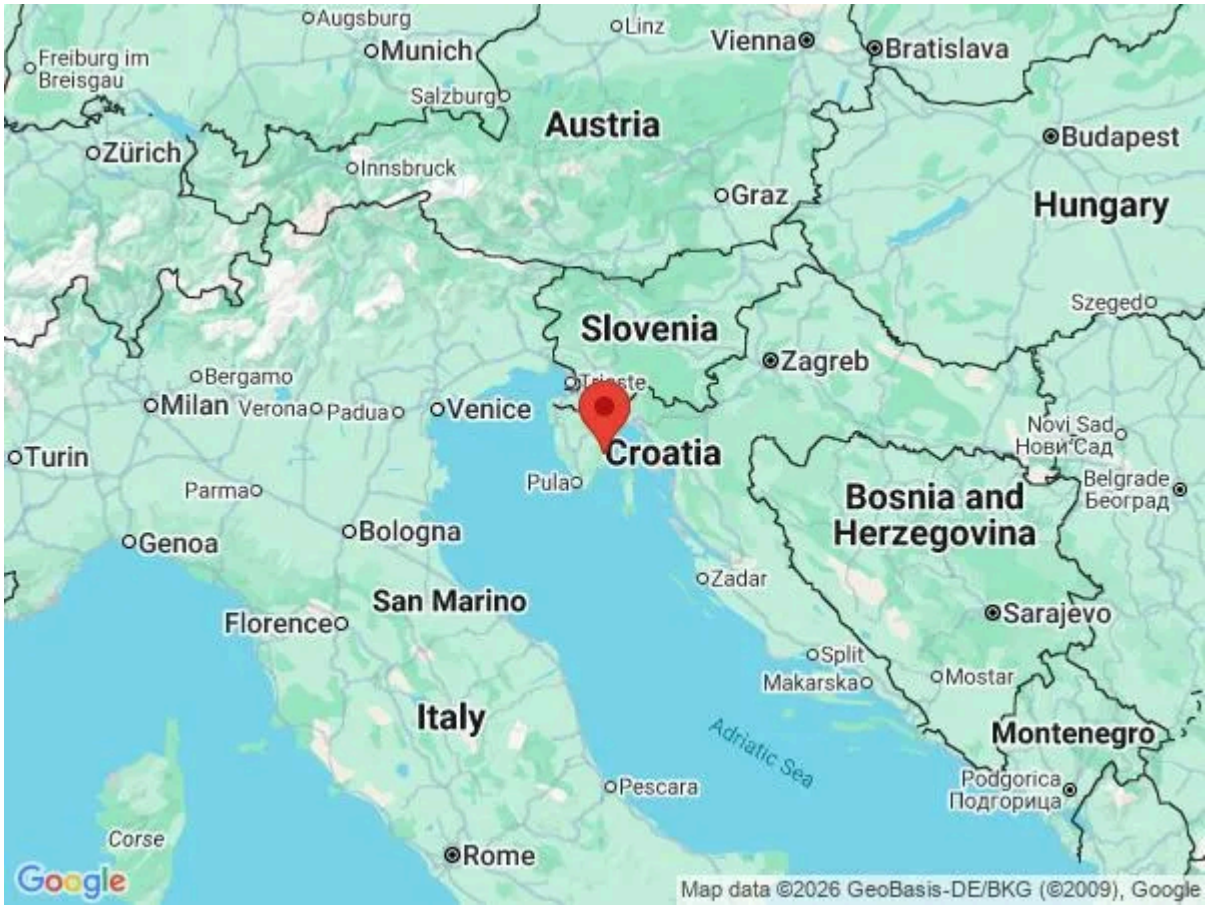

Villa Libera is ideally located just two kilometres from Rabac's Blue Flag-awarded Girandella Beach, set in a sheltered cove with crystal-clear waters, beachside cafés, and a wide range of watersports, including jet skis and banana boats. The beach also features an inflatable sea playground, popular with families. From Rabac's harbour, boat trips to Cres Island offer the chance to see wild dolphins in their natural habitat.

Cres Island is a nature lover's paradise, with dense forests, dramatic cliffs, and ancient villages like hilltop Lubenice. Visitors can explore the Beli visitor centre, home to impressive griffon vultures.

Just above Rabac lies the medieval hilltop town of Labin, with cobbled streets, pastel houses, and panoramic views from the Fortress Fortica. The town offers charming cafés, seafood restaurants, and a vibrant cultural scene with concerts and festivals in summer.
