Overview

Casa Sonara is a magical Cabo San Lucas property. It is warm and inviting with mesmerising detail and colour, all sitting on the fabulous, exclusive Pedregal estate enjoying wonderful ocean views. With four gorgeous, very individual, spacious bedroom suites, this villa sleeps eight guests in luxurious comfort.

The prestigious, smart and secure Pedregal estate is immensely popular with wonderful recreational activities, excellent restaurants, a stunning hilly backdrop and beautiful beaches. When staying at Casa Sonara, you are just minutes from the fun of downtown Cabo, the sensational Medano Beach and the world-class marina. Welcome to paradise at Casa Sonara!

Outside living at this sensational villa, is simply superb. Not only are the views wonderful, alfresco dining with the villa's outdoor kitchen and beautiful dining area, its infinity swimming pool, Jacuzzi and spectacular terraces are sublime. On the gorgeous Pedregal hillside, you feel on top of the world. You can grab a seat by the firepit and enjoy the dramatic evening skies, watch the sun go down and enjoy delicious cocktails made at your very own bar! There is an outdoor sound system for your favourite tunes. Just make sure you have some fizz chilling so that you can take a soothing dip in the Jacuzzi with a glass in hand! You can find a dreamy spot to enjoy your holiday read, play some family games, or simply relax on the alfresco seating area and plan your adventures for the next day.

Inside the villa, you will smile at the warm and welcoming ambience, the quality finishes, stunning artworks and the artistic decorative accents. It feels special yet homely. Throughout, there is beautiful marble flooring. The smart wooden kitchen is highly impressive with oversize appliances, a wine fridge, an impressive bar and a sociable breakfast bar. The main living, dining and kitchen space is open plan in design but on various levels. It is interesting and very inviting. A colourful, stunning seating area enjoys spectacular views with a full wall of floor-to-ceiling doors in front and a beautiful ceiling above. The huge contemporary artwork blends perfectly with the soft furnishings and warm honey coloured wall. The doors lead to a lovely furnished terrace, the perfect spot for your morning cup of coffee or a late-night drink. The fabulously social dining table sits under yet another attractive ceiling and chandelier enjoying further beautiful views. There is an additional family area with a huge television with international channels and an Amazon Fire stick, a good spot for a family game of cards or for children to chill out after a busy day. Casa Sonara is an incredibly captivating holiday retreat with beautiful, relaxing spaces, a winning combination of modern style and comfort. It was remodeled in 2019 and you are definitely likely to want to never leave!

Each of the four gorgeous bedroom suites enjoys an en-suite bathroom, all with Jacuzzi baths. They boast mesmerising, panoramic vistas, king-size beds, terraces or balconies and walk-in closets. These dreamy havens are not blank, minimalist spaces at all, they enjoy feature walls and bright, vibrant colour. It is very easy to enjoy some private time in this villa with furnished balconies and terraces and private facilities. There are two inflatable beds at your disposal for extra guests.

Casa Sonara is a colourful, inviting wonder. You will love it!

Location & Local Information

Casa Sonara is located on the exclusive Pedregal estate, Cabo San Lucas' premier hotspot! Overlooking Cabo San Lucas' gorgeous bay, the estate offers an welcoming atmosphere, delightful cobblestone streets, fabulous restaurants and excellent recreational options including tennis. Guests enjoy privacy, seclusion and tranquility as well as spectacular sea views from the hillside.

Cabo San Lucas is located on the southern coast of Mexico's stunning Baja California Peninsula. It is a vibrant, A-list resort drawing celebrities from around the world. It feels like paradise and is a dreamy destination for those looking for stunning landscapes and seascapes, world class golf courses, sensational, serene azure waters, dazzling white sandy beaches and impressive gastronomy. Cabo San Lucas also offers a dazzling nightlife and an endless list of activities. Visitors can enjoy relaxing cruises on the serene Sea of Cortez, discovering its enchanting coves and stunning rock formations including the famous sight known as El Arco or The Arch. Cabo's world-class marina offers an excellent range of boat trips for whale-watching, fishing and sunset watching. Cabo has earned the title of 'Marlin Capital of the World' for its abundance of striped black and blue marlin. Cabo's wild nightlife includes tequila shots from exotic, vibrant bars together with frenzied conga lines. The area's delicious cuisine includes seafood, a variety of international foods and authentic Mexican tacos and tortillas. Cabo also has a fantastic reputation for its wellness spas so it is the perfect place to treat yourself to some heavenly me time. Children love their Cabo holidays meeting the local animals, whale-watching and taking camel rides through the Desert Park Natural Reserve. Whilst some beaches are a little wild with powerful rollers, others offer an excellent choice of watersports including jet-skiing, banana boating, snorkeling, kayaking, parasailing, kitesurfing and diving. Horse riding is also available.

Cabo is a renowned and popular golf destination with 18 championship courses offering a unique desert-meets-the-sea setting. Golfers can tee it up on outstanding courses built by design legends such as Jack Nicklaus, Tom Fazio, Greg Norman, Tom Weiskopf and Robert Trent Jones Jr. Los Cabos dominates the golf scene in Latin Amerca. In 1992 the 18 hole Palmilla course designed by Jack Nicklaus opened, Los Cabos' original true resort course. It has since expanded to a 27 hole course and Nicklaus went on to craft another of the great courses in the area, Cabo del Sol's Ocean Course. It is in the world's top 100 courses and during the winter months golfers enjoy spotting grey whales on the horizon.

The laid back, colonial gem of San Jose del Cabo is only 30 minutes away. It is full of the magic of Old Baja with a rich and colourful history dating back to the 1700's. For hundreds of years San Jose del Cabo was home to Indian communities with its natural fresh water oasis flowing into the beautiful palm-lined lagoons on the edge of the sea. Then followed colonization by the Spanish. It boasts a splendid Spanish colonial character with an abundance of Mexican charm. The town enjoys secret courtyards, boutique shopping, a beautiful church, wonderful art galleries and a fabulous gourmet dining scene. The main plaza connects the characterful streets and is wonderful for a stroll, browsing in the galleries and jewellery design shops. There are many atmospheric restaurants, colourful cocktail bars and craft breweries. The main season sees a wonderful Thursday evening Art Walk when the plaza is alive with artists and their works, wine tastings and music and dance performances.
