Overview

Live the lifestyle of the rich and the famous at this luxury villa that you will never, ever want to leave.

Begin the day strolling along your own private cove, before enjoying a stunning meal prepared for you by one of the villa's team cooks. As you sip on your fresh juice and overlook the Caribbean Sea, the hardest decision you will have to make is what to do today; swim in the private pool? Explore the cove, gully or gardens? Enjoy the villa's many watersport offerings? Or take it slow and begin the day with a

Needless to say, opportunities to relax are plentiful at this villa.

There's a large living room for group gatherings, with plenty of seating for everyone to relax. It's an elegant room, with beautiful artwork adorning the walls. The living room overlooks the ocean and is located by the dining portico and three of the bedrooms. Of course, movie nights will be next level in the state-of-the-art cinema which has over 150 movie options and can also connect to Apple TV and Netflix.

There are three alfresco dining areas to enjoy the beautiful local cuisine prepared for you by your villa cook and chef, pick between the dining portico, an elegant space that can sit up to 20 people while overlooking the gardens and see. Or maybe a more intimate meal at the gazebo, surrounded by matured tropical foliage and overlooking the sea. Or maybe you want to begin or end your day on the annex patio, watching the sunset or sunrise under the shade of the large almond tree. Menus are prepared to your specifications, and there are lovely homemade treats, sweet and fresh baked breads and pastries on hand. There're also teakettles in most rooms – so you'll never be far from your next cuppa.

This villa is in its own slice of paradise, with each bedroom spread out across the property. There are 10 en-suite bathrooms in this villa. In the main house there are three bedrooms, the master suite and two guest rooms, each decorated with different hues that add a unique character to the rooms. The annex has two rooms, also decorated with touches of bright hues that have beautiful unobstructed views of the ocean. The pool cottage has two connecting guest rooms and overlooks the pool.

The Tea House is a two-room cottage located in the garden, away from the main house and other rooms, and is ideally appointed to families. Lastly, the Pavilion, which has two connecting bedrooms and is at the eastern edge of the property.

The bedrooms are all well stocked with little luxuries, from speakers and luggage racks to 100% cotton linens and air-conditioning and ceiling fans. The bathrooms are also well equipped, with toiletries, hairdryers and beautiful 100% white cotton linen robes and slippers.

Unsurprisingly the most stunning part of this home is the exterior, and it's like no other villa you will ever see. The villa is set on its own large property, with a gully running through and a large private cove so everyone can enjoy the Caribbean Sea in the best possible way. Of course, what is a luxury villa without a large private pool surrounded by sun loungers that are calling your name?

If you want to live your best life in Barbados, you can do that here.
