

Villa Kristal

Region: Holetown Sleeps: 20

Overview

Villa Kristal is presented as an enchanting beachfront estate set across 1.7 acres on Barbados' celebrated West Platinum Coast. The residence spans an impressive 12,000 square feet and is quietly arranged across six graceful buildings linked by coral stone terraces, garden pathways and a charming bridge. A wealth of living areas is designed to promote leisurely days, while three al fresco dining spots create gentle transitions from morning gatherings to candlelit evenings. Ten beautifully appointed guest rooms, each with an en suite bathroom and refined amenities, are configured to provide comfort for large groups or family parties seeking an intimate retreat. Originally brought to life by the famed designer Oliver Messel in the 1960s and faithfully restored in 2014, Villa Kristal carries a serene theatrical quality softened by warm décor and sweeping coastal views, allowing the entire estate to feel both elegant and deeply welcoming.

The villa's amenities are arranged to elevate every moment of a stay, beginning with a 50 by 20 foot infinity pool positioned toward the Caribbean Sea. A secluded cove beach sits just steps away, inviting sunbathing, snorkeling and relaxed swims in calm waters. An 18 foot speedboat with a professional boat master, along with a Sunfish sailboat, paddle boards and a full range of watersports equipment, remains available whenever the mood shifts toward exploration. A private cinema and modern fitness centre further enhance the estate's appeal. Throughout the experience a dedicated staff of 14 provides attentive yet unobtrusive service, allowing guests to enjoy gourmet dining and personalised concierge support that subtly shapes an unforgettable holiday at Villa Kristal.

Location & Local Information

Famed beaches that stretch on for miles with crystal clear waters that are calling your name – Barbados is a must-visit destination. This island is located in the Caribbean, and it's arguably one of the most popular travel destinations due to its stunning natural wonders and its beautiful beaches.

There are many beaches that will be calling your name, from Miami and Rockley Beach to Bottom Bay and Mullins Beach and many, many more. Just wandering around the corner and you will discover a beautiful beach. And what better way to enjoy Barbados than exploring the renowned beaches.

There is, of course, more than just beaches and you have to make sure you explore some of the history-rich offerings from Bridgetown, the capital which is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site and Speightstown, the second largest city which has the architecture that dates back to the settlement of Barbados.

Of course, you have to fully embrace everything Barbados has to offer, including the local cuisine, so you can't leave without trying the national dish of Cou-Cou and Flying Fish. The people of Barbados are known for their friendly disposition, so it won't be long before you're calling Barbados home, and you will leave a little part of yourself there.

This villa is located in the heart of the islands prestigious West Coast and is within reach of many beautiful beaches and the historic towns.
