Location & Local Information

Grenada, known as the “Spice Isle,” is a lush Caribbean island measuring just 12 miles wide and 21 miles long. Along with the neighbouring islands of Carriacou and Petit Martinique, it forms a beautiful trio in the Eastern Caribbean. The island features dramatic volcanic mountains, including Mount St Catherine, stunning sandy beaches, crater lakes, waterfalls, rainforests and vibrant coral reefs. The scent of nutmeg, cinnamon and cloves fills the air, reflecting Grenada’s rich spice heritage.

Visitors can enjoy hiking through national parks, watersports, yachting, fishing and exploring lively markets and cultural attractions. Highlights include the Belmont Estate chocolate plantation, River Antoine Rum Distillery, the Nutmeg Processing Cooperative, and the unique Molinere Underwater Sculpture Park, where over 80 submerged sculptures create a fascinating underwater gallery.

Nature lovers will enjoy the island’s lush interior, home to Annandale Falls, Seven Sisters Waterfalls and Grand Etang National Park, where tropical forests, scenic hiking trails and playful mona monkeys await. Grenada also offers vibrant shopping, delicious cuisine and beautiful beaches like the famous Grand Anse.
