

Casa Justino

Region: Funchal   Sleeps: 8

Overview

Perched on a hillside above Funchal, Casa Justino is a stylish four-bedroom villa with panoramic views across the city, harbour, and Atlantic coastline. Sleeping up to eight guests, it's an ideal base for family getaways or holidays with friends, combining comfort, thoughtful design, and open-plan living with a strong sense of place.

Floor-to-ceiling windows on both levels invite the outside in, while the main lounge and dining area features neutral-toned leather seating and accents that echo the terracotta rooftops beyond. A mezzanine ceiling adds height and light, while the dining table - seating up to twelve - faces the palm-dotted rear garden. A second, more private lounge area provides a quiet escape, perfect for reading or watching TV.

The kitchen is sleek and discreetly equipped, opening onto a breakfast nook that overlooks the tiled terrace and gardens. Upstairs, four individually styled bedrooms each open onto a shared terrace, with exceptional en-suite or private bathroom facilities.

Outside, hammocks strung between palms, a terraced saltwater pool, and a choice of shaded or sun-soaked seating areas invite you to unwind. Downstairs, a games room and garage complete the picture - Casa Justino offers a bright, relaxed retreat for your Madeira holiday.

Location & Local Information

Casa Justino enjoys a prime hillside position just a short walk from Funchal's historic old town, where cobbled streets, colonial architecture and local culture come together.

Explore centuries-old churches, charming squares and unique museums - Blandy's Wine Lodge is a must for a taste of Madeira's wine-making heritage.

Hop on the cable car to Monte for sweeping views and a visit to the renowned Monte Palace and Botanical Gardens. For the adventurous, descend via the island's famous wicker toboggans, steered by traditional carreiros.

Funchal's dining scene blends local ingredients - fresh fish, bananas, passionfruit - with creative flair. Stock up at Mercado dos Lavradores, the city's Art Deco farmers market, perfect for an evening barbecue back at the villa.

While Funchal's coastline is rocky, the Lido complex offers safe saltwater swimming and easy sea access. Further afield, visit Garajau's protected marine reserve or Machico's golden beach - before retreating to Casa Justino's peaceful terrace as the city lights come on below.

What we love

- Sweeping views over Funchal and the Atlantic from nearly every room and terrace - the perfect backdrop from sunrise to sundown.
- The relaxed indoor-outdoor flow - picture windows, a terraced pool, and hammocks beneath palm trees make it easy to unwind.
- Stylish social spaces - from the designer kitchen and mezzanine dining area to the downstairs games room, there's room for everyone to spread out or come together.

What you should know...

- Due to the terraced design of Casa Justino there are many steps to negotiate. All have handrails.
- Casa Justino is in a residential area of the city, privacy is not an issue due to its terraced design.
