

Maison Des Boutons

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Maison Des Boutons is an extraordinary home that has been lovingly decorated by its antique-dealing owner. Filled with authentic pieces purchased from local markets, this house is a unique place to spend your holiday in Provence.

A reflection of the owner's passion for the region, each room has a great sense of character and tradition. Step inside and you are instantly transported back in time, especially in the large kitchen/dining room with its wooden beams, hanging pots and pans, crockery collection and little clothes pulley. Pastel-coloured walls, patterned rugs and soft furnishings create a cosy and relaxed feel, while chandeliers, ornate mirrors and endless bric-a-brac add to the quirkiness of this home. This theme continues in the living room, study and in each of the maison's six bedrooms.

Set in over two acres of exquisitely tended grounds dotted with lavender, flowers, fruit trees and an alleyway of olive trees, outside is a real haven. A rose-clad pergola can be found next to the swimming pool, while there's also a vegetable garden in which tomatoes, summer vegetables and herbs grow. There are various seating areas for soaking up the sunshine, plus a terrace with an outdoor dining table for enjoying al-fresco meals throughout the day.

The nearest restaurants, shops and cafés can be found just a 10-minute drive away in the medieval town of Le Thor. Strolling through the streets you will also discover an ancient castle and 12th-century church. Some scenic walks depart from Le Thor and a tour of the 'Cave of Fairies' is not to be missed.

The beautiful town of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue can be reached in just 20 minutes and is home to an incredibly popular antiques market. Browse the hundreds of stalls before walking along the canals and admiring the town's mansion houses and flower-filled streets.

Other towns less than 20km away include Velleron, which also boasts an impressive 17th-century chateau, and Carpentras, which is renowned for its busy flea market.

The UNESCO World Heritage City of Avignon is just 20km away and definitely worth a visit when staying in Provence. Its historic centre is packed with fascinating sites, museums and great restaurants, while the cool bohemian quarter by the River Sorgue has lively bars and a vibrant atmosphere.

Location & Local Information

Set back from a quiet country road, Maison Des Boutons enjoys a peaceful setting within driving distance of some of Provence's most charming towns and villages.

Le Thor is a picturesque town positioned on the banks on the River Sorgue just 6km away. It boasts a medieval castle and 12th-century church as well as a handful of good restaurants and useful supermarkets. There are some great spots for fishing and a variety of scenic walks in the surrounding area. The climb up Thouzon Hill offers lovely views while the Grottes de Thouzon, also known as the 'Cave of Fairies', is quite incredible and a must-visit.

Just 10km away sits Pernes-les-Fontaines, a beautiful town home to 40 fountains. Follow the 'Circuit des Fontaines' to see them all and explore other treasures along the way, like the medieval clock tower and many manor homes.

Velleron is just a 10-minute drive away and features an ancient church and 17th-century castle as well as a popular farmer's market selling delicious local produce. Carpentras' market is also well-known throughout the region, with stalls lining the streets trading everything from shoes to black truffles. Just 16km away, the town is also home to sites including the Orange Gateway and 15th-century Saint Siffrein Cathedral.

L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue is another town renowned for its street market. Held on a Sunday, this one is focused on antiques, with some 300 stalls and vendors selling all sorts of bric-a-brac. A 20-minute drive away, the pretty town is built on a network of canals and is a lovely place to wander around.

Other delightful towns within an hour's drive include Gordes, Roussillon and Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, where Vincent Can Gogh once lived and painted some of his most celebrated works of art. Châteauneuf-du-Pape, famed for its red wine, can also be reached in 30 minutes.

Avignon is half an hour away and is a city full of historic and cultural significance. The UNESCO World Heritage Sites - the Pope's Palace and Saint Benezet Bridge - are not to be missed, nor is the vibrant bohemian quarter. After a busy day exploring, head to the main Place de l'Horloge and enjoy a drink as you watch the world go by.

Provence also offers stunning scenery, some of which can be best admired from the Alpilles Naturel Regional Park. Less than an hour's drive away, the trails and tracks through the vineyards, forests and ravines provide the chance to see some of the region's unspoilt beauty.
