Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 10

Overview

In a bucolic Provençal setting, surrounded by pines, truffle oaks, olive trees and lavender, Maison Des Petits Galets is a beautiful holiday home in the heart of the glorious Luberon.

Dating back to the 18th century, this former farmhouse has been renovated with such authentic style alongside contemporary interior design. Light floods in to the open-plan living and dining room with its high-end furnishings, Apple TV and Bose speakers. Sliding doors open out to the most characterful courtyard, a lovely place for al-fresco dining by the pretty fountain and olive tree.

The bedrooms are just as gorgeous, especially the king-size double with its high ceilings, elegant décor and luxurious free-standing bath. Each of the bedrooms has been individually styled and furnished and they all have their own shower or bath – the clawfoot tub in the downstairs double is another particularly lovely feature. Outside, there's ample space to feast with family and friends and the relaxing swimming pool, which can be heated if needed, will delight all ages. Step through the little wooden gate and be greeted with views of the Luberon massif from the vast parkland surrounding the maison and its garden.

Just under 2km away is a beautifully preserved medieval hilltop village where you can wander around its steep narrow lanes and find a pretty terraced café for a bite to eat. Ménerbes is also a short drive away, another idyllic village surrounded by vineyards and cherry orchards whilst Bonnieux, Roussillon and Van Gogh's beloved Gordes are also close enough for a leisurely lunch out.

The Luberon also offers atmospheric Farmer markets selling all sorts of Provençal delights as well as captivating cycle and walking trails through woodland, hills, olive groves and fields of lavender. Seek out antiques in charming L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue or hire kayaks along the river near Fontaine-de-Vaucluse. Spend time visiting magical towns and cities such as Avignon and Aix-en-Provence, always returning to the tranquility and beauty of your historic Luberon home.
