

Villa Cabernet

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 8

Overview

Experience the beauty of Provence whilst staying in a converted barn with contemporary interiors and the most wonderful grounds, only a short drive from the much-loved Luberon village of Ménerbes.

Set in the countryside, Villa Cabernet benefits from vast land which includes large lawns, woodland, a vineyard, boules and a stunning 17m long heated swimming pool with views as far as Mont Ventoux. Relax on the decked poolside terrace or create a feast to enjoy with family and friends in the superb pool house's kitchen. There's also al-fresco dining at its best on the south-facing terrace by the villa.

The interiors of Villa Cabernet are bright and modern yet with ample character as well as plenty of space. There are three double bedrooms in the main house and space for a seventh and eighth guest in the separate pool house, around 60m from the villa, where there is a sofa-bed or mezzanine bedroom, perhaps ideal for older teens. Out of the three bathrooms, the one with a walk-in shower and bath with jacuzzi jets is sure to impress your guests.

It's only a short drive to the charming village of Ménerbes, where Peter Mayes' 'A Year in Provence' was once set. As well as steep cobbled lanes with restaurants and cafes, there's a vibrant weekly market and beautiful views of cherry orchards and vineyards in the surrounding landscapes.

Other Luberon gems nearby include Gordes, Lacoste and Bonnieux whilst slightly further afield you can spend the day visiting the antique stores of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, canoeing along the river from Fontaine-de-Vaucluse or admiring the UNESCO World Heritage sites of historic Avignon.

Location & Local Information

In the Luberon region of Provence, part of the Vaucluse department of southern France, Villa Cabernet is set in spacious grounds only 1km from the picturesque village of Ménerbes.

Ménerbes is a delightful place to spend time in whether pottering around its Thursday morning market or simply exploring its cobbled lanes, restaurants and cafes soaking up the Provençal ambience as seen in Peter Mayes' 'A Year in Provence'.

You're also so well positioned for exploring other idyllic villages of the Luberon from Van Gogh's beloved Gordes to other archetypal places such as Bonnieux, Lacoste and Roussillon. Food lovers will enjoy the fantastic Saturday morning market in Apt, just under half an hour by car, or closer to home enjoy the foodie shops and Sunday Farmer's market in nearby Coustellet.

This region is wonderful for keen walkers and cyclists with a range of trails passing vineyards, olive groves and orchards. Lovers of outdoor adventures should also experience some of the hikes and canoeing/kayaking opportunities around Fontaine-de-Vaucluse, the source of the beautiful Sorgue river.

Further day trips beyond the Luberon include the historic city of Avignon (40km) and its UNESCO World Heritage sites as well as the artistic town of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (38km), set in the glorious landscapes of Les Alpilles. Heading further south, Aix-en-Provence (61km) is another delight with its terrace cafes, parks and art galleries/museums including Atelier Cézanne, the studio once belonging to the famous artist.
