What we love

- We love how peaceful and quiet the villa is, making it the perfect place to escape daily life and unwind
- Having a private pool right in the garden was ideal for children as they could do whatever they wanted without having to make trips between pool, room and restaurants like with a traditional hotel
- Staff at the hotel are extremely helpful, recommending and arranging day trips for us
- Complimentary short-term vehicle hire made it extremely easy to visit nearby attractions

What you should know...

- The swimming pool is a single-depth pool, so keep an eye on children and weak swimmers when using it
- The area around the villa is very quiet, so you'll likely need to travel further afield for activities
- Thailand gets very hot in the summer months which can be uncomfortable for small children, so check the average temperatures for the month you intend to travel before booking anything
