Villa Jacaranda Mauve

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Jacaranda Mauve enjoys an elevated position overlooking the sea in Benitses, around twelve kilometres south of Corfu Town. Designed with accessibility in mind, this contemporary villa offers thoughtful features for guests with mobility needs, alongside generous gardens filled with olive, palm and citrus trees, flowering plants and wide lawns that create a peaceful, private setting.

The ground floor is arranged for ease and comfort, with wide door frames, an accessible bathroom and a double bedroom with a king-size bed opening directly onto a spacious cobbled terrace. A fully equipped modern kitchen, finished in soft dusky pink with mint and wood cabinetry, sits beside a dining area for six, also leading outdoors for effortless alfresco living.

Upstairs, a spiral staircase leads to a bright living room with satellite television, Netflix and access to a large veranda with sea views. A twin bedroom, which can be configured as a king-size, also opens onto the veranda. Both bedrooms feature Cocomat sleep systems. A stylish family bathroom with a walk-in shower completes the layout.

Outside, a private swimming pool with step access is framed by terraces, lawns and shaded seating areas, including a barbecue terrace and relaxed lounge spaces—ideal for long, sun-soaked days and sociable evenings.

Location & Local Information

Benitses is a charming village on the east coast of Corfu, approximately nine kilometres from the airport and twelve kilometres south of Corfu Town, making it easily accessible for arrivals. At its northern edge lies a pebble and shingle beach ד a picturesque marina accommodating almost two hundred boats and yachts. The village offers a pleasing selection of shops, restaurants and bars, creating a relaxed yet well-serviced base for exploring the island.

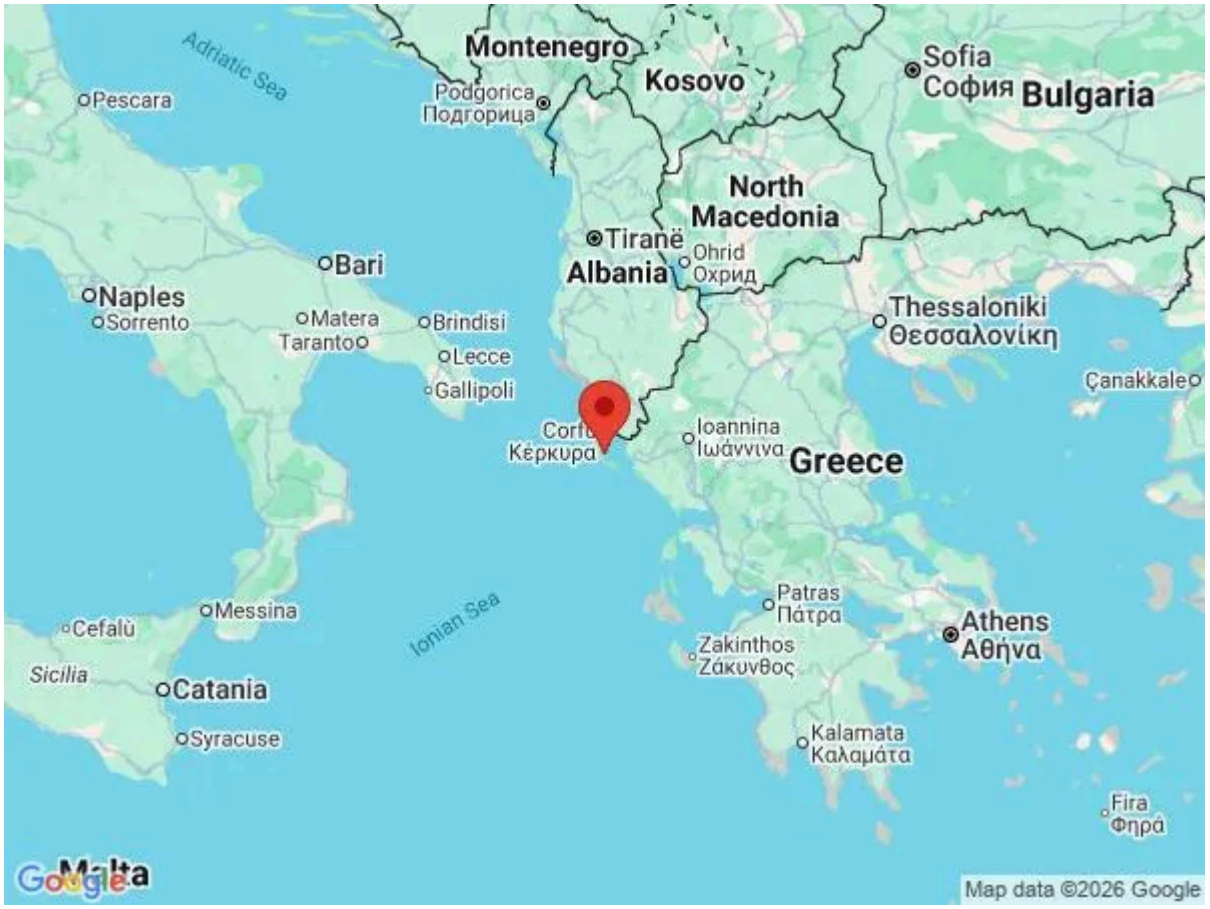

Corfu is renowned for its verdant landscapes and varied scenery, where crystalline waters meet mountains, valleys, lagoons and forests. Scattered with hundreds of villages and churches, the island gained international recognition through the writings of the Durrell family. Visitors are drawn not only to its coastline but also to its excellent cuisine, independent shopping and rich cultural heritage.

Corfu Town, also known as Kerkyra, is among the most architecturally impressive towns in Greece. Influenced by Venetian, French, Sicilian and British rule, it features elegant mansions, grand palaces and thirty-nine churches, alongside imposing fortresses. The UNESCO-listed Old Town is a maze of winding lanes filled with lively cafés, boutiques and restaurants, with highlights including The Liston and the Church of Saint Spiridon.

In the north eastern corner of the island, Kassiopi sits beneath Mount Pantokrator. Once a fishing village, it is now known for its harbour, Byzantine castle ruins and views across the sea to Albania, with a rewarding walk around the headland.

What we love

- Villa Jacaranda Mauve is a new villa where everything is immaculate and beautiful. The villa stands in a gorgeous garden with fabulous sea views
- The ground floor of the villa is wheelchair accessible offering guests with mobility issues an excellent, beautiful place to stay
- The location of this villa is wonderful. You will quickly arrive from the airport and can get to the buzzy Corfu Town very easily
- Neighbouring villas are Villa Jacaranda Blue (https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/corfu/villa-jacaranda-blue/) and Villa Jacaranda Lilac (https://www.oliverstravels.com/greece/corfu/villa-jacaranda-lilac/)

What you should know...

- All facilities on the ground floor, except for the barbecue area, are in compliance with the accessibility guidelines
- There is a spiral staircase between floors so you need to take care with young children. There is a stairgate that you can borrow
- This villa is new so everything is immaculate
- The beach is accessed by crossing a main road, so perhaps do let the littles ones go alone.
