Location & Local Information

Deluxe Cielo is located on the hillside in Bonaire, a beautiful, exclusive and quiet residential area of Mallorca.

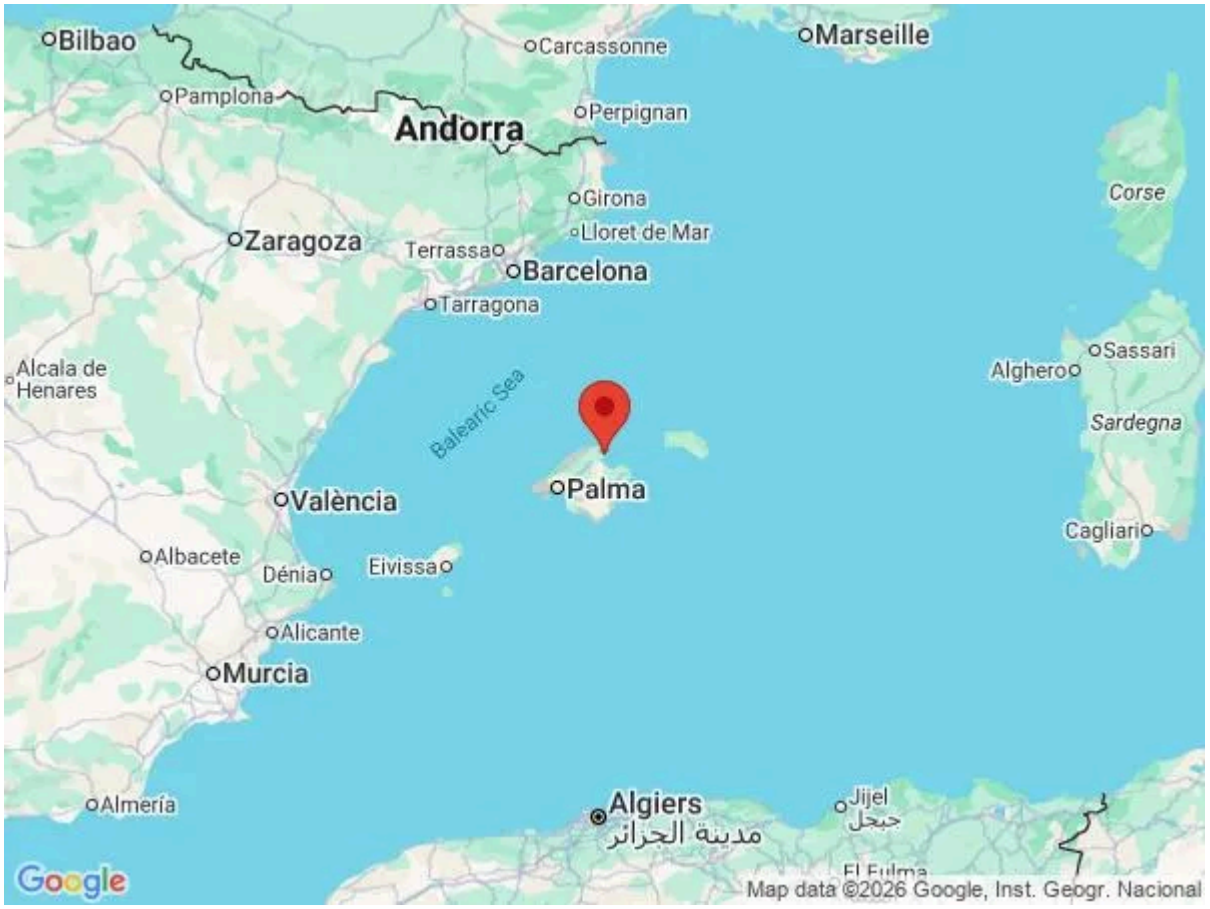

The villa is a short drive from the tourist hub of Alcudia, as well as Port d'Alcudia, known for its seven-mile-long Blue Flag beach. Alcudia's marina is a lively spot with trendy bars, restaurants, and various excursions, such as trips to Menorca, dolphin-watching tours, and glass-bottomed boat rides. Alcudia's Old Town is a great place for an evening out, featuring cobblestone streets, charming balconies, cozy cafes, unique boutiques, and excellent restaurants. The area also hosts a vibrant outdoor market and various cultural events like traditional festivals and music concerts. Visitors can explore the town's medieval walls and enjoy panoramic views of the Bay of Pollensa. Alcudia has a rich history, from its Roman roots to its later Moorish influence. Key sights include the Neo-Gothic Sant Jaume Church and the Sa Bassa Blanca Museum, known for its contemporary art and beautiful gardens.

Pollensa and Puerto Pollensa are also nearby. Pollensa is a historic walled town with beautiful architecture, modern art galleries, stylish restaurants, and a lively market. Puerto Pollensa offers stunning white sand beaches with warm, shallow water. Formentor, a bit further away, is also worth visiting for its breathtaking views.

Wine lovers can visit local vineyards such as Bodegas Can Vidalet and Bodega Butxet. Mortitx winery, located on a winding road between Pollensa and Lluc, is an emerging player in the Balearic wine scene and offers a unique experience despite its remote location.
