Villa Betty offers a rustic, country vibe with a contemporary edge and oozes warmth and charm.

Each bedroom is bright and spacious, featuring a double bed, plenty of wardrobe space, satellite TVs and air conditioning. Location & Local Information

Villa Betty is located near Sukosan, a small town located just 10km from the popular town of Zadar. There are five well-known national parks and two nature parks in the area, including Vrana Lake and the National Park Kornati, so flora and fauna lovers will be in their element. The small town of Sukosan is popular with tourists thanks to its many bars, restaurants and hotels, as well as the private beach, which is located on the marina. The area has sandy and pebble beaches and safety buoys towards the open sea. Most of the beaches are fully equipped with showers, toilets, and other amenities, making them the perfect choice for families.

Sukosan has a lot to offer in terms of food, and you'll find plenty of cafes, bars, restaurants, and taverns where you can enjoy traditional Dalmatian hospitality. You'll find plenty to tempt the taste buds here, including a variety of local Dalmatian dishes prepared according to traditional local recipes, such as daily fresh fish dishes, meat specialities, local virgin olive oil, fresh vegetables and homemade wine. If you want to pick up a few things to prepare a meal back at the villa, you'll find several small supermarkets in the centre of Sukosan, as well as a butcher and bakeries. If you're after a slightly wider choice, we recommend heading to Zadar to stock up, as you'll find larger supermarkets with more variety.

If it's nightlife you're after, nearby Zadar is where you'll find more variety and a slightly livelier atmosphere. However, Sukosan does feature several beach cafes where you'll be able to relax with a few cocktails, and in the summer months some of the bars and cafes feature performances from DJs that go on into the night.
