Location & Local Information

You will reach the fabulous Villa Karpos in one hour from the airport. Located on the hills on the edge of the hamlet of Rou, cradled by Corfu's mountains, the villa enjoys a delightful, very scenic location with sensational panorama. There are some amazing walking paths from the front door of Villa Karpos, crossing the wonderful Corfu Trail and passing ancient, picture postcard villages. The nearest supermarket is in Sinies, 10 minutes away. The nearest beaches are Agni, Avlaki, Kalami, San Stefanos and Nissaki which you can reach in roughly 20 minutes.

Not far from the village, you will find Acharavi on the northern coast of Corfu. Acharavi enjoys a wonderful variety of shops and bars which are sprinkled along the central street and along the beach promenade. Its golden beach stretches the whole length of the town, a lengthy 3km. Visitors will find plenty of loungers and umbrellas for hire and a wonderful selection of beach bars.

Closer still, in the lively north eastern corner of Corfu is the beautiful resort of Kassiopi. With the dramatic Mount Pantokrator overlooking the resort and with a stunning harbour, this once quiet fishing village is a very popular holiday resort. It boasts traditional narrow streets overlooked by the ruins of an ancient Byzantine castle. Kassiopi offers breathtaking views out to sea towards the Albanian coast as well as excellent restaurants. You will enjoy a delightful, tranquil walk around the headland.

Corfu Town or Kerkyra as it is otherwise known, is 45 minutes away in the car. It is one of the most beautiful and elegant towns in Greece. Though 7th in size, it is one of the most populated in the whole of the Ionian Islands. The town's stunning architecture has many strong influences including Sicilian, Venetian, French and English and the town is brimming with elegant mansions, magnificent palaces, beautiful squares and majestic fortresses. The entire old city is declared a UNESCO World Heritage site. Corfu Town's unique charm, sophistication, character, atmosphere and faultless cuisine should not be missed!

The island of Corfu has over 120 beaches in total, a few hundred villages, nearly a thousand churches, a significant mountain range, valleys, waterfalls and forests as well as more than 3 million olive trees, three lagoons and numerous caves. The fauna and flora is world famous due to the Durrell family and especially since the TV series. You might need to book a two week holiday at Villa Karpos to see everything you want to.

What we love

- The enchanting Villa Karpos is perfect for a romantic escape.
- The extensive terraces and gardens are an absolute delight, offering mesmerising views across the Ionian Sea to the Albanian mountains and Greek mainland
- The surrounding countryside is beautiful with mountains, beautiful walking trails, pine woods, olive groves and a stunning coastline
- Many guests believe that you enjoy the very best views on the whole of Corfu from this magical spot. You can enjoy some fabulous hikes where you will be greeted with sensational panorama

What you should know...

- The main house features a quirky upside down layout which gives the bedroom direct access to the pool terrace
- Please note that if you would like access to both of the bedrooms, you will need to select "4 guests" at the time of booking. Those booking for "2 guests" will only have access to the accommodation in the main house, however, the outside space will still be completely private.
- April can have lovely weather, but often the pool won't be as warm as high season. If the evenings are cooler the house has a wood burning stove and an electric blanket.
