Location & Local Information

Villa Beach View is located on the west side of Barbados, near Holetown, formerly known as Jamestown, and just thirty kilometres from Grantley Adams International Airport. The area was once called the Gold Coast of Barbados after its many golden sandy beaches, but it is now often referred to as the Platinum Coast, as it is home to glitzy beachfront mansions with private beaches and desirable luxury resorts. Jamestown has its own parish church and the last of the island's operational sugar factories called Portvale, and is sometimes called tongue-in-cheek Little England. The location is ideal for family and friends' holidays with so much to see and do, as well as the perfect place for the most romantic honeymoon. Holetown is home to many famous eateries, lively bars, exclusive nightclubs, designer shops galore, and, of course, those incredible shimmering white sand beautiful beaches.

If you fancy exploring further afield, nothing is too far away as the island of Barbados is just thirty-two kilometres north to south and twenty-five kilometres east to west. The villa's concierge can arrange car hire, or there are many private and group tours to see the hot spots. A visit to St Nicholas Abbey is highly recommended, where you can walk around the Great House, a Jacobean-style mansion built in 1658 with Tudor, Elizabethan, Renaissance, Flemish, Dutch and French influences from the last three hundred and fifty years. The Abbey also has its own distillery, reputed to be the birthplace of Barbados rum, well worth a tipple. No visit to the Abbey would be complete without a trip on the recently completed Heritage Railway, a restored Victorian locomotive. The railway takes you on a journey through the plantation, past the house, around the lake, through mahogany woodlands, and then leaves you at Cherry Top Hill, where you can admire the vista of the island's rugged coastline.

For the more active, there are several PGA golf courses scattered across the island, most notably the nearby Sandy Lane and the very well-reputed Royal Westmoreland. A favourite jaunt is a Catamaran sea-fishing trip with live bait, and the added attraction of eating your catch-of-the-day for supper. Days out at sea, swimming, snorkelling or scuba diving are necessary. Charter your own yacht or join a tour with experienced instructors and guides.
