Here, you will find a collection of unique bars, restaurants, and shopping districts, meaning there is something for everyone to enjoy. Costa Brava is most known for its bustling wine industry, and guests are encouraged to partake in a tour of one of the town's independent wineries. Mas Molla was first established in 1338 and is less than 30-minutes away from the centre of Begur. This historic winery takes guests on an immersive journey through their glorious vineyard and down to their cellar to give them an in-depth guide on their production process.

This villa is just 3km away from the incredible Sa Tuna beach. This popular landmark offers tourists the chance to sit on the gravel beach and simply watch the crystal clear waters ebb and flow before them. Although this beach is quite small, there are a plethora of facilities available, including a set of public toilets and a car park. Furthermore, there is also a wide range of watersport activities available at this beach. As such, guests can complete a scuba diving course or even a sailing trip right on the shores of this spectacular beach.

If you are looking to explore the fascinating history of this quaint Spanish town, then Begur Castle is an ideal attraction. This castle was first constructed in the 11th century by Lord Arnust of Begur and was declared a Cultural Asset of National Interest back in 2018.
