Villa Sahil Mavi

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 4

Overview

Villa Sahil Mavi is a newly built two bedroom traditional stone villa, just right for a small family or friends sharing. This stylish detached one storey villa is located on the water's edge of Kalamar Bay, Kalkan and can comfortably accommodate up to four guests. Set in a small development of three villas in a large garden, with beach club style platforms and entry level steps that take you down to the warm waters of the Mediterranean Sea. This luxury villa is furnished in a contemporary style, with open plan living, modern lighting, and an artist's eye for detail and design.

Enter the villa to reveal a large open plan living space. The seating area has a large upholstered sofa, and a stylish swivel chair set around a wooden coffee table, and a flat screen television. An adjacent dining area hosts a charming round four -seater table, perfect for some formal indoor entertaining. The state-of-the-art sleek black kitchen is small yet well equipped with all of the latest modern gadgets with which to make some memorable meals. On the same floor you will find two well appointed bedrooms. The master bedroom has a double bed, side tables and fitted wardrobes, vanity unit and an en-suite marble bathroom with a walk-in shower, single handbasin and WC. The second bedroom has two wide twin beds, fitted wardrobes and vanity unit and an en-suite marble bathroom. Both bedrooms have picture windows that flood the room with natural light and lead onto the pool terrace with stunning sea views.

Step through the floor-to-ceiling sliding doors from the sea view sitting room and bedrooms onto the tiled terrace, where you will find a large infinity swimming pool with infinite views over Kalamar Bay and the beautiful Turkish Turquoise Coast. The pool is surrounded by four cushioned sunbeds and parasols, a lounge style seating area, and a covered dining space with built-in stone barbeque for the ultimate in alfresco entertaining. There is also a covered pergola seating area to give you some shade in high season. Leading down to the sea are bathing platforms cut out of the rocks, surrounded by lush gardens, and just as you reach the water steps will guide you into the warm waters of the Mediterranean Sea.

Location & Local Information

Villa Sahil is set in a group of three villas snuggling the seashore of Kalamar Bay in the exclusive tourist hot spot of Kalkan. The town of Kalkan is 125 kilometres from Dalaman Airport, a scenic one and a half hour journey through the Turkish countryside and Taurus mountains. Originally a Greek enclave called Kalamaki, Ottoman and Hellenic influences can be found in the winding streets of the old town, full of traditional white houses and home to a plethora of restaurants, cafes and bars, and souvenir shops full of goodies you'll want to take home.

No stay in Kalkan is complete without a boat trip from the harbour, whether it's a shared one with family and friends or you charter your own gulet, a day out at sea with your favourite captain and crew, is one to treasure. All aboard for a day of swimming and snorkelling in beautiful bays, enjoy a meal of local homecooked meze, take afternoon tea, and then sail back to harbour cocktail in hand to watch the sunset. For the beach bunnies, Kalkan has its own pebble beach with easy access into the sea.

Travel further afield to the stunning Kaputas Beach set in a natural gorge, or take a trip to Patara, where you will find twenty kilometres of unspoilt golden sands and a protected area for the hatching turtles. Kalkan is home to a number of beach clubs along the length of its coastline, have some fun in the sun at family-friendly resorts offering water sports and swimming pools, or relax and unwind at exclusive luxury destinations and be waited on hand and foot whilst enjoying alfresco spa treatments. For those with itchy feet the Lycian Way walking trail cuts through Kalkan. Follow in the footsteps of thousands of years of history, as you trek the trail taking you through major archaeological sites, local villages, dramatic coastlines, and the areas' flora and fauna. Take a short journey to the town of Kinik, where you can step back in time to the Lycian city of Xanthos. Follow the D400 to Fethiye, and discover the historical sites of Patara, Letoon, Tlos, and Pinara, where you can see the ancient ruins, amphitheatres and temples with Lycian, Greek, Roman, and Byzantine influences. The harbour town of Fethiye is also full of ancient sites worth seeing, as well as a foodie-heaven fish market, and home to some seriously good designer labels and fabulous jewellery shopping.

Whilst the nearer town of Kas is just twenty-five kilometres away, and worth the journey alone along one of the world's most stunning and dramatic coastlines. Walk through the harbour to the cobbled streets full of Ottoman architecture and overhanging balconies festooned with pastel coloured bougainvillaea, barter for unique handmade and antique goods in its many shops, and make memories dining in one of the traditional restaurants serving authentic Turkish cuisine with mesmerising sea views. And if you're feeling intercontinental hop on the twenty-minute ferry from Kas to the Greek island of Meis, where you can explore the Blue Cave and dine by the water's edge.

What we love

- Villa Sahil Mavi takes luxury to the next level, the quality of the furniture and furnishings is second to none
- There's nothing quite as lovely as waking up and swimming in the sea, the step access into the warm waters of the Mediterranean from the villa is magical
- The villa's terraces and balconies offer simply stunning views, sitting watching the sunset cocktail in hand in your own exclusive villa – life doesn't get any better than this!

What you should know...

- The pool can be heated for the duration of your stay for an additional charge, fabulous for the cooler months
- You can walk into Kalkan town from Kalamar bay, it can be a little bit steep up and down
