

Sherborne Cottage

Region: The South West Sleeps: 6

Overview

Sherborne Cottage holds a wonderful location in the heart of the popular Dorset town of Sherborne, where a variety of excellent pubs and restaurants as well as helpful supermarkets can be found within walking distance. The cottage is owned by the neighbouring hotel and so guests will enjoy sumptuous hotel-style amenities including White Company toiletries and soft robes, while also benefitting from access to the hotel's fabulous restaurant and spa facilities.

The characterful cottage has been beautifully modernised to provide luxurious accommodation for up to six guests while still retaining all its original charm. On the ground floor is the main living space which comprises of a sitting room with a cosy inglenook wood burning fireplace, dining room with solid oak table as well as a fully-equipped kitchen which comes complete with all the tools you could possibly need to create delicious meals at home. Upstairs, on the first floor is the impressive master suite which comprises of a super-king bed, opulent in-room bathtub, and en-suite shower room. Also on this level is a double room as well as a fantastic family bathroom. Upstairs, in the eaves, is the third and final bedroom, a colourful super-king room complete with en-suite shower room.

Outside, there is a charming walled garden which comes complete with al fresco dining facilities, the perfect spot to spend lazy mornings enjoying a cup of coffee. After action-packed days spent exploring the wonderful Dorset countryside, enjoy delicious barbecues al fresco on the terrace, and relax in the woodfired jacuzzi nestled at the bottom of the garden.
