

Casa Riba Dos

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 4

Overview

Casa Riba Dos is the kind of property where you can turn up, walk through the front door, and immediately relax. Every care and worry are taken care of, with the toughest decisions to make during your stay being which beach to visit each day! Surrounded by vineyards, the modern interiors of the villa are relaxed by the charming Galician nature that borders the whole property.

Located a short ten-minute drive from the beautiful, crystal-clear waters of the Cambados beaches and the lively town that accompanies them, we cannot think of a better location. Anthony Quinn Bay, Afandou Beach and the well-known Tsampika Beach are all within a ten-minute drive of the villa, giving you plenty of choices!

From the moment you arrive, the contemporary style is evident through the sleek architecture and contemporary furnishings. Mixing white décor with feature walls and stylish furnishings, the interiors feel bright and airy. Casa Riba Dos boasts two elegant bedrooms, the first with a double bed and the second with twin beds, both with pretty views across the pool. The bedrooms give the chance to enjoy private moments alone or as a couple, whilst the sociable open-plan living area downstairs, encourages guests to come together in one space, enjoying quality time with family and friends.

From the main living area, doors gracefully opens to the terrace, expanding the living space outdoors, joining the interior and exterior together. The spacious garden and terrace overlook the surrounding vineyards and are home to the private swimming pool, perfect for cooling off on hot summer days. Guests love cooking and dining outdoors, making good use of the barbecue to grill fresh fish and vegetables bought in the Campados markets! With plenty of seating both in the sun and shade, everyone can spend time outdoors, soaking in the tranquil atmosphere.

Just a short drive from the Umia River route, this charming location offers the perfect retreat from which you can immerse yourself in the typical Galician nature. Whether it is tours of the vineyards, days at the beach or trips to Santiago de Compostela, there is something for everyone in the vibrant region.

Location & Local Information

Surrounded by vineyards, Casa Riba Dos has located a brief ten-minute drive from the beautiful town of Cambados in Galicia. Galicia, which remains mostly off the typical tourist trails of Spain, offers an authentic Spanish retreat and an escape from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life. Restaurants, cafes, and shops can all be found within walking distance, as well as handy supermarkets for picking up your daily provisions. Santiago de Compostela is a forty-five-minute drive away, offering a seemingly endless list of things to see and do.

The seaside town of Cambados is located in the 'Ría de Arousa' with cobbled streets which guide you around the historic centre of this seafaring town. Known for its rich architectural wealth, including the 'Plaza de Fefiñáns', the ruins of Santa Mariña Dozo, San Sadurniño's tower, and Pastora's viewpoint, all of which are well worth a visit. One of our favourite stops in the town is the covered market. There are two weekly markets where you can gather all the products you could need in the way of shopping, choosing fresh, local ingredients to enhance the flavours of your stay!

Santiago de Compostela, easily reached within a forty-five-minute drive, has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. It is well known to be one of the most beautiful urban areas in the world. A whole day or two can easily be passed exploring the many sights and wonders of this fascinating city. History, nature, leisure, and gastronomy all add to the vibrancy of this picturesque city, with plenty for visitors to fall in love with. The famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, should be top of your list. With much of the architecture dating back to medieval times, afternoons are best spent ambling the narrow streets and squares that make up the historic quarter with centuries of history to absorb.

We always consider gastronomy to be an important part of any holiday, and the food markets in Santiago will not disappoint. Masses of fresh produce from both the sea and the land is beautifully displayed at the 300-odd stalls.

With intimate wine bars surrounding the market, you can try some of the best wines of the region, alongside the best food!

What we love

- Surrounded by vineyards, this villa is best combined with a glass or two (or three!) of local wines!
- There are restaurants, cafes, and shops, all within walking distance from Casa Riba Dos, so you'll have plenty to do here
- Modern and stylish, the interiors are sure to delight everyone
- Next door is the equally lovely, Casa Riba Uno (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/spain/galicia/casa-riba-uno/>)! Get in touch with us today to enquire about renting both for your next holiday!

What you should know...

- There is fencing blocking off the main house from the pool, which gives parents peace of mind around the little ones!
- We recommend renting a car to reach the property, but also to explore the surrounding region
