

Casa Riba Uno

Region: Galicia Sleeps: 4

Overview

Casa Riba Uno offers a stylish and modern villa settled amongst the vineyards. Just imagine it, the vines growing around the terrace whilst you sit in the sun with a chilled glass of wine produced from the very grapes within your gaze. The villa is located in a quiet area, just a ten-minute drive from the beautiful town and white sandy beaches of Cambados. Galicia is less visited by tourists, found off the main tourist trail of Spain, yet it boasts so many splendours and delights, both manmade and natural.

The villa itself is the kind of place where you can open the front door and instantaneously relax. White walls, plenty of glass and contemporary furnishings all contribute to the sublime interiors. Natural light floods the space with a simple layout that allows you to settle in and make it your own throughout the whole duration of your stay. There are two bedrooms, the first offering a comfortable double bed and the second furnished with two twins. There is a modern bathroom that could easily fit into any style magazine.

In the main living space, an intimate, modern kitchen, social dining table and cosy sofas all sit open plan, with plenty of room to spend time together. There is a smart TV, as well as all the comforts you could need. With the doors wide open, this bright and airy room becomes at one with the outdoor living spaces, so you can meander in and out of the sunshine to your heart's content.

On the terrace, the private swimming pool takes pride of place, bordered by a low-maintenance lawn and an array of sun loungers. Barbecues and long evening outdoors would not go amiss, although, with a selection of eateries within walking distance, we suggest you take an evening or two off as well!

Off the beaten path of the usual tourist routes, Casa Riba Uno offers some welcome respite, yet with the wonders of Santiago and the beautiful beaches of Galicia all so nearby, this is sure to be an unforgettable holiday leaving you only wanting more.

Location & Local Information

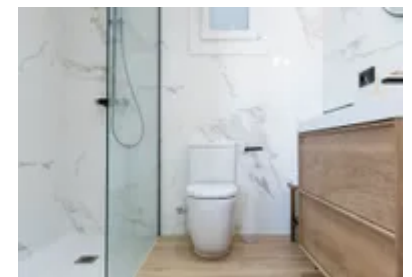

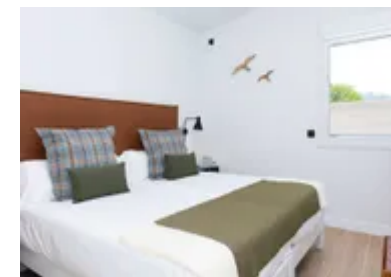

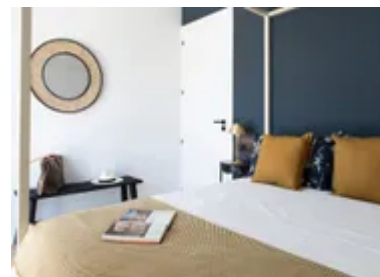

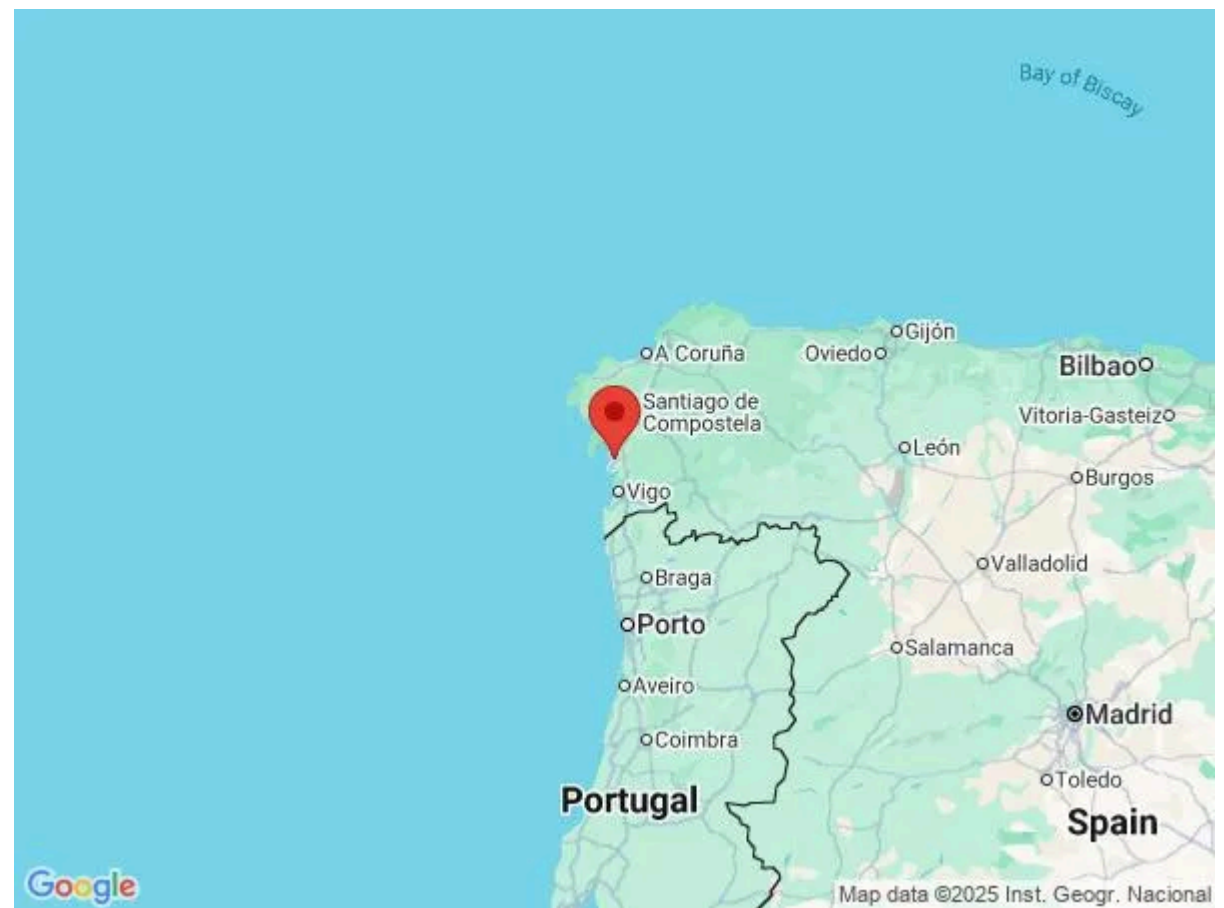

Casa Riba Uno is an elegant property located amongst the vineyards on the outskirts of Cambados. Just a ten-minute drive from the beautiful town and its illustrious beaches, you can enjoy an authentic Spanish retreat. The villa is far enough from the main tourist trails of Spain, to ensure peace and tranquillity, yet with endless sights to see and nature to enjoy. Guests will appreciate the proximity of supermarkets and shops, all within distance, as well as an array of local cafes, restaurants, and bars. Santiago de Compostela is a forty-five-minute drive away, with its rich architecture and vibrant lifestyle, perfect for a day trip. What's more, next door is the equally brilliant Casa Riba Dos (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/spain/galicia/casa-riba-dos/>)! Get in touch with us today to enquire about renting both properties together for your big family holiday.

Located in the 'Ría de Arousa', the seafaring town of Cambados is known for its rich architectural wealth, including the 'Plaza de Fefiñáns', the ruins of Santa Mariña Dozo, San Sadurni's tower, and Pastora's viewpoint, all of which are well worth a visit. The town's covered market offers two markets a week, where you can find all the fresh and local produce you could need, choosing ingredients that enhance the flavours of your stay.

Awarded the status of a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, the intrigues and delights of Santiago de Compostela can be reached within a forty-five-minute drive of Casa Riba Uno. Days in the city seem to pass in mere moments, so we would not be surprised if you choose to spend more than one day wandering the cobbled streets of the historic centre. The famous cathedral, Saint Sign of Santiago, is a great place to start, surrounded by architecture that dates to medieval times. The blend of history, nature, leisure, and gastronomy all combine to create the rich and vibrant atmosphere this city is known for.

When you are done exploring the history and architecture, we are sure some food and wine will not go amiss! The food markets of Santiago display all the region's best choices, with around 300 stalls displayed beautifully with all the colourful produce you could imagine. Intimate wine bars are tucked into the surrounding streets, perfect for a glass or two with your loved ones.
