

Masia Sant Andreu

Region: Barcelona Region Sleeps: 22

Overview

For elegant luxury set in immaculate grounds, large groups will love Masia Sant Andreu. Located in the quiet town of Sant Andreu de Llavaneres, this lavishly restored farmhouse is just 35 minutes from Barcelona and 5 minutes to the beach. The nine bedrooms and seven bathrooms are sure to impress!

Upon arrival, guests will immediately notice the view. The vista from the garden and terraces is simply breathtaking—lush, green mountains and a crystal blue sea. This is also a great vantage point to take in the whitewashed walls of the farmhouse and the size of the garden. Here you'll find an 8m x 4m swimming pool, mature trees and several alfresco dining terraces.

Once you step inside the property, the décor will continue to make you gasp. This historical home combines modern amenities with romantic flourishes and antique decoration.

The sleek, fully equipped kitchen includes a breakfast island for casual coffee gatherings. A spacious dining area is then accessed through double doors. This chic spot could also function as a work hub for corporate retreats as Wi-Fi is available throughout the property.

In the opulent dining room, there is seating for ten at a long marble table, with an elegant chandelier above. The room is decorated in a luxurious style with thoughtfully selected furniture, ornaments and paintings. High ceilings and large windows give the room a naturally bright outlook.

This room also provides a well-stocked library and, beyond it, a seating area for reading. In fact, there are several relaxation areas like this throughout the property, including a recreation room with a pool table and a traditional bar. All have original features such as wooden beams, fireplaces and exposed stonework, but with modern touches such as a flat-screen TV and large, comfortable sofas.

There are eight bedrooms at Masia Sant Andreu, which can be configured in different ways depending on your group size. The property sleeps up to 22 people in double, twin and triple rooms (most are en-suite). They are all beautifully furnished, with light flowing through the shuttered windows. Many come with seating areas, and all have been decorated to a sumptuous standard.

The six modern bathrooms have different discerning touches, such as rainfall showers, deep baths and double sinks.

Outside, guests can enjoy the private swimming pool or relax on one of the many loungers. The garden is beautifully manicured, with mature trees providing shade and several terraces for alfresco dining.

The property is located in the relaxed town of Sant Andreu de Llavaneres, near the Maresme coast. The beach is moments away, and you are 10 minutes from designer outlet shopping at La Roca Village. Barcelona is only 35 minutes from Masia Sant Andreu with its renowned architecture, cuisine and nightlife.

Location & Local Information

Masia Sant Andreu has a fantastic location, right between the Maresme coast and the mountains. You could be in Barcelona in 35 minutes or the beaches of the Costa Brava in 90!

The property overlooks the mountains and nearby Montnegre and El Corredor Parks. These are known as the 'forests by the sea' and are great places to hike and spot Neolithic dolmens and medieval churches.

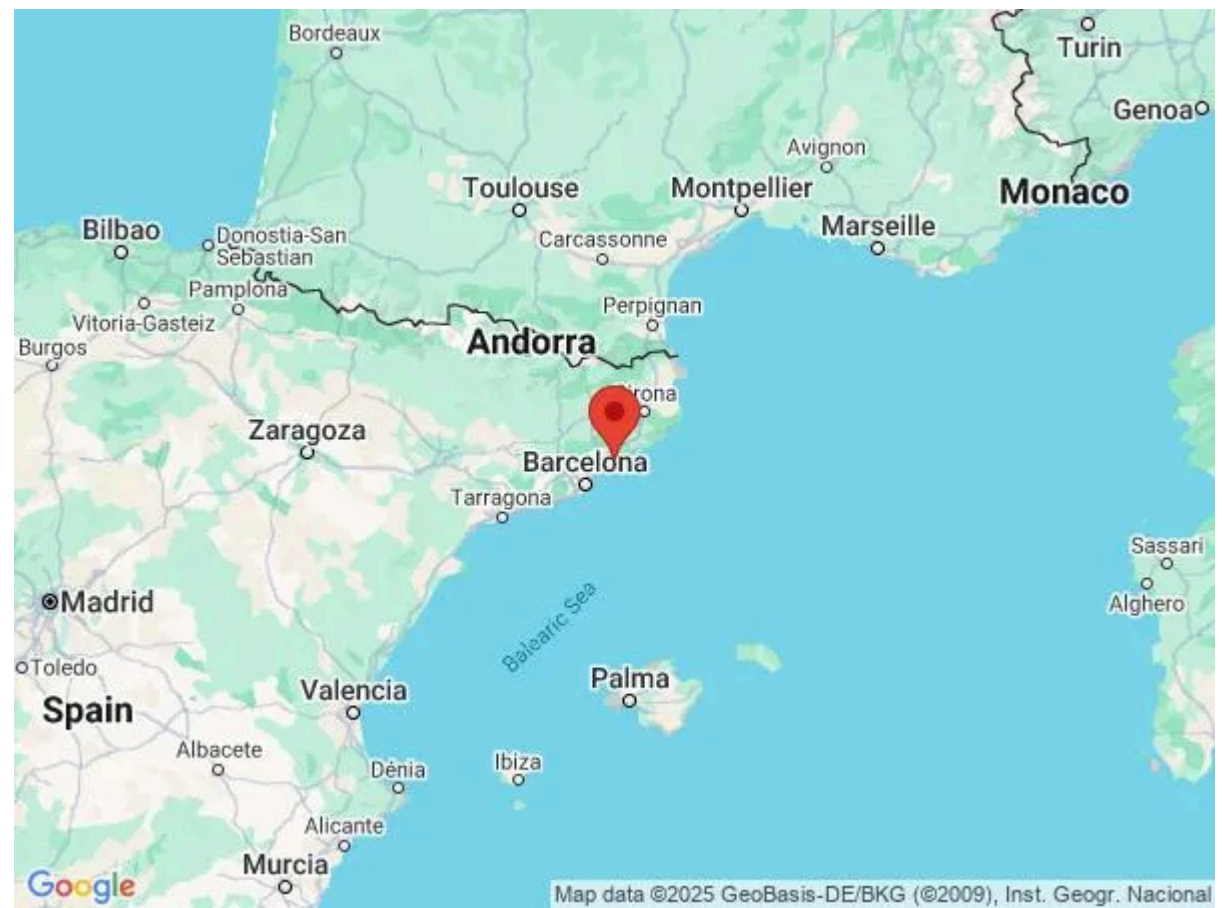

While the Costa Brava is close by, Masia Sant Andreu is within minutes of the Maresme coast, which is less crowded. The nearby marina of Port Balis also has a beach, pleasure boats, shops and restaurants. Other popular beaches are Les Barques and La Estació, loved by locals for their calm seas and water sports.

Everything you need is close to the property, including a train station with links to Barcelona. Some of the best golf courses in Catalonia are also very close by. Golfers of all levels will enjoy the renowned Club de Golf Llaveneras. Its lush course boasts Mediterranean Sea views. Afterwards, a meal in the onsite restaurant seems like a fitting way to end the day!

Thirty-five minutes away from Masia Sant Andreu is world-famous Barcelona. Two thousand years of architecture, some of the best food in Europe and every type of entertainment make this city a must-visit.

A good way to familiarise yourself with the city is to take an open-top bus tour. They all stop at the most famous landmarks and are a fun way to get around. The top of the list of historical sites to visit has to be the neo-gothic Basilica of the Sagrada Familia. Despite being unfinished by the architect Gaudi, it is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most recognisable buildings in the whole of Spain.

Barcelona is a compact city, and it's easy to explore different neighbourhoods. For Catalan culture, try Gracia, full of quirky shops and eateries, from vegan cafes to Michelin-star restaurants.

Barceloneta is the closest beach to the city centre. It's also one of the best, with a lifeguard, Wi-Fi, bathrooms and showers. The old harbour and promenade are also good places for a stroll and people watching. The Gothic Quarter (Barri Gotic) has the oldest buildings in the city and is full of bars, restaurants and squares. You could easily spend a day here, just to explore the labyrinthine streets!

Masia Sant Andreu's location is an enviable one. Surrounded by the mountains and the sea you are close to beaches, shopping, restaurants and city life too!
