

Mare Alcudia

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 8

Overview

An authentic and charming four-bedroom villa, located close to the traditional town of Alcudia, Mare Alcudia offers guests the chance to relax and unwind in this incredible property. It effortlessly blends the rustic atmosphere of the Mallorquin countryside with the quaint feel of small-town life. The exterior of the property is surrounded by a tree-lined drive, offering a sense of security and privacy before you enter the main house. The property's immaculate gardens are filled with an assortment of native plants and trees, making it a unique wonderland for new guests. The outdoor pool is just one of the spectacular facilities available at Mare Alcudia. Equipped with a seating area and a unique fountain, the swimming pool is the ideal place to melt away all of the worries and stresses of everyday life. Additionally, this villa is fitted with its very own solarium, able to host up to eight guests at a time. So, you can top up your tan as you bask in the glorious warmth of the Mallorquin sun.

The interior of the property is filled with an assortment of distinctive furnishings, giving guests a blend of both comfort and style. Mare Alcudia makes use of a combined lounge/dining area, bringing guests together in an airy and spacious environment. This part of the house is home to an opulent log-burner to make every night a bit more cosy. The welcoming lounge area brings guests directly out to a covered terrace area, accompanied by an expansive dining area. This terrace gives tremendous views of the luscious garden and immense pool area. Moreover, guests are free to use the villa's fully-equipped kitchen for preparing meals and creating those unforgettable family memories.

Mare Alcudia hosts an array of spacious bedrooms, making the property suitable for up to eight guests. The master bedroom contains a luxurious double bed, which is perfect for all of the lazy mornings you have during your stay. The other three guest rooms all use a pair of single beds, making them ideal for children. All of the bedrooms in this property have access to the magnificent bathroom, which includes a deep tub with a showerhead attached. This allows guests to be flexible and have access to a variety of options during their stay. Additionally, a maximum of two guests have the chance to sleep in the annexe suite. This comes with a large double bed, a sofa, and access to a high-class walk-in shower.

Mare Alcudia has been praised by previous guests for its tranquil nature, yet is within walking distance to the heart of the Alcudia town centre. Here you will be whisked away into the picturesque nature of Alcudia's architecture and traditional setting. If you are looking to discover Alcudia's rich history through its moreish food options, then why not partake in a food tour? Accompanied by a local guide, guests will have the opportunity to travel up and down the town delving into a wide selection of native food options. The tour begins outside the main church of Alcudia and lasts for around 4 hours, giving guests a rich and detailed experience.

Alcudia has welcomed a budding tourism industry since the 1960s, attracting guests from far and wide. One tourist attraction that has captured the hearts of many is the Alcudia Market. Although it is only open on Tuesdays and Sundays, locals say it is not to be missed. The market opens at 9.00am and closes at 2.00pm, making it a rare and well sought after attraction. Guests can take a 20-30 minute walk to the market from Port de Alcudia or they can partake in a special Alcudia Market bus trip. Take the time to weave in and out of the bustling stalls as you discover a plethora of fresh produce, irresistible clothing items, and a range of souvenirs to take back home. If you want to discover the true wonders of Alcudia, then this local market is the perfect place to do so.
