

Villa Hamidi

Region: Cyprus Sleeps: 6

Overview

A relaxed three-bedroom villa with private pool, free WiFi and private parking close to Coral Bay in Paphos, Cyprus.

Villa Hamidi is a lovely home away from home with an open plan living area. Settle in front of the cable TV and relax after a long day out exploring, or cook up a storm in the well equipped kitchen – complete with dishwasher, microwave, oven & hob and ample fridge. There's a well-sized dining table where you can serve up your feast and enjoy views out into the garden. For added convenience, the villa also has laundry facilities – great for longer stays or messy kids!

Outside is a charming patio area complete with barbecue for outdoor chefs and a shaded dining area so you can eat lunch out of the hot midday sun. There's also a fantastic large pool for morning dips, late night swims or family fun – as well as sun loungers where you can catch some rays or use the umbrella for shade while you flick through your favourite magazines. The villa also features a pretty garden with lots of nice plants and lush greenery, giving the outside area that authentic Mediterranean feel.

On the ground floor you'll also find the first of the three bedrooms – a twin with ample storage space and sliding doors out into the garden. Then, following the marble stairs up from the open plan living area you'll arrive at the two upstairs bedrooms. There's a comfortable twin with triple wardrobes and its own private balcony. While bedroom three is the villa's double, with windows on all sides and whitewashed walls for a bright and peaceful environment.

The other amenities include two bathrooms, one with a shower as well as another with separate WC. Plus there is air conditioning throughout, or heating if you decide to visit in the colder months. There are also towels available for your stay and private parking.

Location & Local Information

Cyprus is the Mediterranean's third largest island and has a population of 1 million people. The island is divided up into six districts, and Villa Hamidi is found in the district of Paphos, right by Coral Bay. It's a convenient half-hour drive from Paphos airport and only twenty minutes from the main harbour town of Paphos. Here you'll find plenty of lovely cafes, bars, restaurants and boutiques as well as spectacular views across the Med.

Paphos also has a rich history and widely known for its connection to the goddess Aphrodite. Today it is a UNESCO world heritage site, as well as being a popular tourist destination, with lots of cultural landmarks and attractions to visit.

Here are some of our favourite places to visit in the Paphos area:

Paphos Old Town

The characteristic Cypriot town and was voted European Capital of Culture in 2017, highlighting its status as a true gem of the Mediterranean. So if you've been dreaming of wandering through picturesque streets, stopping to take photos for the 'gram at every turn, and browsing quaint artisanal boutiques you'll find them realised here in the Old Town of Paphos.

Kato Paphos Archaeological Park

One for the history and nature buffs, besides it's gorgeous landscape Paphos archaeological park offers some beautiful ancient ruins you won't want to miss out on. Visit the houses of Dionysus, Theseus, Aion and Orpheus to see stunningly preserved mosaic floors with scenes from Greek myths, such the famous Theseus and the minotaur. There are also the remains of a Roman marketplace, small Roman theatre.

Tomb of the Kings

With gorgeous views out across the Mediterranean Sea, the Tombs of the Kings is a necropolis dating back to the 4th century BC. It's constructed in a series of caves and chambers carved out of sandstone rock, and while there aren't actually any kings entombed in the cemetery, you will find graves of local dignitaries and high-ranking officials. At only 2.50 euros to enter, this attraction is a total bargain.
