Location & Local Information

Villa Sevid enjoys an exclusive, hillside location in the small town of Sevid, very close to both Trogir and the beautiful towns of Istria. Sevid enjoys a well indented part of the Croatian coastline so is popular with those that want to rent boats and explore. Sevid is 12 km west of Trogir and 16km from Primosten, enjoying a delightful bay with several islets in front of it. The coast is rocky with several pebble beaches and some concrete sunbathing decks. It is popular for snorkeling, diving and exploring the coast and its abundant underwater life. Sevid snoozes away as time appears to have stood still in this tranquil Dalmatian village with its whitewashed villas and terracotta roofs following the bay.

Next to Sevid is Vinisce, a small, sleepy fishing village 30km from Split. It is situated in a beautiful cove with warm, crystal clear sea and among attractive olive groves. It enjoys several markets, bakeries, restaurants, café bars and a small harbour for fishing boats. During the summer, the people of Vinisce organise summer festivals where you can sample homemade specialities and wines and enjoy the outdoor evening concerts whilst sitting in a harbour side café.

Seget Donji boasts numerous restaurants serving delicious Dalmatian cuisine and local wines. There is a water taxi at the beach where you can head over to Trogir. The promenade is delightful and leads you towards the end of the bay and the wonderful Medena complex with excellent facilities and watersports. This pretty village is a wonderful starting point for hikers and bikers. The sparkling new Marina Baotic is very attractive with a fantastic restaurant.

Primosten, thirty minutes up the coast offers sublime views along the coast and islands, especially at sunset. It also boasts cafes, beach bars and a quayside buzzing with diners. It is much busier with tourists strolling along its elegant paved promenade. The Our Lady of Loretto statue, a shrine to the Virgin Mary, stands above Primosten on Gaj hill. The site offers panoramic vistas of the resort. Primosten offers some lovely beaches, the most famous being Raduca Beach. The town also boasts one of the best known clubs in Croatia, Aurora, which regularly attracts the very best DJ's.

Rogoznica is also worth a trip. It lies on a peninsula that was formally the island of Koper. The town has one of the most beautiful ports and locals engage in farming, fishing and tourism. It boasts some wonderful, historic churches and a salt lake called 'Dragon's Eye. The beaches are lovely with plenty of watersports.

The villa is within easy reach of Trogir, Split, the spendid Krka waterfalls and Sibenik (50km). Trogir offers so much in the way of beaches, entertainment, scenery and restaurants. It is set within medieval walls on a tiny island, linked by bridges to both the mainland and to the far larger Ciovo Island. The Cipiko Palaces and St. Lawrence Cathedral are examples of the town's incredible architecture. Building work started on the cathedral in 1213 though the main part wasn't completed until 1250 and the bell tower was built between the 14th and 16th centuries. Visitors can climb the bell tower to appreciate the spectacular views from the top. The Cipiko Palaces were home to the town's noble family in the 15th century. It is little wonder that Trogir was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1997. On summer nights everyone leaves the knotted, maze-like marble streets and heads to the wide seaside promenade lined with cafes, bars, restaurants and luxury yachts. You will find local honeys, wines, olive oils and grappa amongst the colourful local fruit and vegetable produce at the wonderful market.
