Relax in your very own hot tub, swim up and down the 10m long heated swimming pool or just simply enjoy a glass of local rosé as you gaze out at the Mediterranean. There's a second pretty terrace on the other side of the villa, perfect for convivial al-fresco meals in the shade with family or friends.

The villa's superb interiors also make the most of the incredible setting from the stylish open-plan lounge and the sleek modern kitchen which opens out to the pool terrace to the elegant dining space with picture book windows facing the azure-coloured sea. There's air-conditioning throughout and all four bedrooms have their own bath or shower rooms. Most of the bedrooms look out towards the Mediterranean including the charming cocoon-style double where there's a sea-view window right above the bed.
