Nearby, Driros Beach offers a quieter retreat, while the submerged ancient city of Olous and its five stone windmills can be explored along the coastal path.

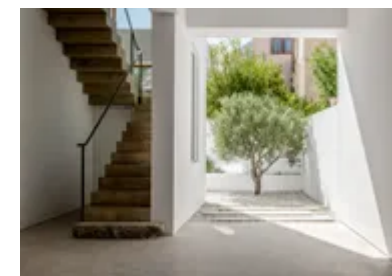

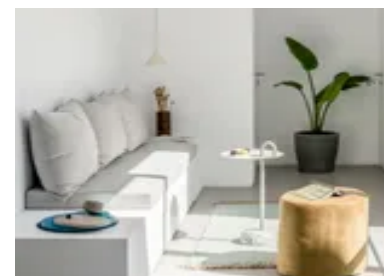

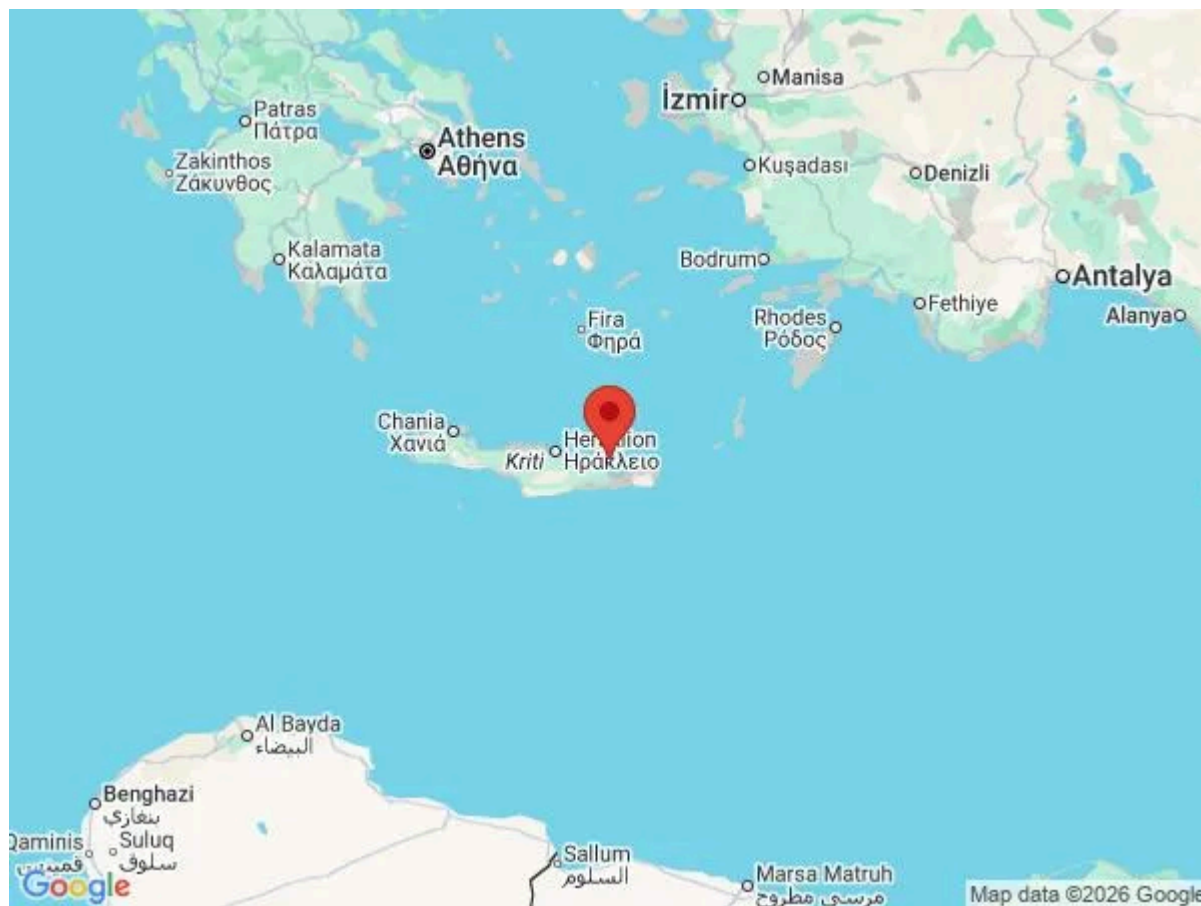

Nearby and overlooking Spinalonga Island, the village of Plaka offers a picturesque setting with welcoming tavernas and restaurants. Visitors can enjoy scenic walks through olive groves or to neighboring villages like Kampia and Kokkino Chorio, and relax on the charming pebbly beach lined with tamarisk trees. Once a fishing village serving Spinalonga Island's leper colony, Plaka has transformed into a peaceful resort with scenic views and opportunities for hiking amidst mountain caves.
