

Villa Bay View

Region: Sivota Sleeps: 6

Overview

Enjoying a sensational elevated position perched on the mountain side of the charming fishing village of Sivota, Villa Bay View offers stylish, luxurious holiday living for six guests. Sivota is a magical, traditional village where you will experience a taste of the real Greece in the region of mainland Epirus. With heavenly views of the turquoise sea with the islands of Paxos and Corfu in the background, guests can relax and enjoy a dreamy holiday in this wonderful setting. Sivota's fabulous beach and quayside is just five minutes walk or one minute in the car from the villa. Just a little further away are the breathtaking Mikri Ammos and Megali Ammos beaches with their impressive array of outstanding waterfront restaurants and bars. A little further afield, you can enjoy the magic of Parga, Ioanna and the mountain villages of Zagoria. Off the coast of Sivota are the three beautiful islands of Mourtemeno, Agios Nikolaos and Bella Vraka, all mesmerising spots.

Villa Bay View has been designed, decorated and furnished with luxury and sophistication in mind, offering superb modern comfort to guests. The villa is extremely stylish and mostly enjoys natural hues throughout. When you arrive at the villa, you will discover a fabulous, very generous sized living space that is drowned in natural light through its many doors and windows. Sumptuous sofas and chairs are perfectly positioned to enjoy the panorama and the wall-mounted television. Just behind these is an elegant dining area and another sofa, an ideal spot where you can curl up with your holiday book. Just to the side is a fabulous, sleek kitchen in a mellow blue tone with excellent appliances including a Nespresso coffee machine and also offering a handy breakfast table. Doors open to the pool area from one side of the living space and to the garden from the other side. Throughout Villa Bay View you will admire the fabulous art that adorns the walls. Steps lead up to another raised living area with a feature fireplace. It is very smart, enjoying beautiful furnishings.

The villa boasts three fabulous bedrooms, two of which enjoy ensuite bathrooms and the last that has use of a separate private bathroom. The master suite leads to a fantastic, beautifully furnished balcony where you can enjoy breathtaking vistas across the lush greenery to the sea. Exquisite linens adorn the bed and rich wooden furnishings add glamour to the room. The second double room also enjoys access to the balcony and enjoys a smart, immaculate ensuite. The third bedroom boasts comfy twin beds that can be placed together to make a stylish kingsize bed. Here the views from the balcony are of the mountains. Each of the bathrooms are beautifully tiled, offering walk-in showers and the very best of appliances.

Villa Bay View enjoys gorgeous outside space where you can soak up the glorious Greek sunshine, dine alfresco using the gas barbecue or enjoy a glass of your favourite tippie while watching the captivating sunsets. The infinity pool is stunning with the fabulous scenery all around. Guests staying this gorgeous haven are greeted with a traditional Greek welcome hamper and luxury toiletries in the bathrooms.

Location & Local Information

The beautiful Villa Bay View enjoys a fabulous, prestigious location on the hillside above Sivota. It is just five minutes walk or one minute in the car from this charming fishing village and its delightful beach. The villa looks out to the islands of Paxos and Corfu. Sivota is very pretty and offers many taverns, cafes, bars and boutiques lined up around the seafront. You can delight in watching the fishermen bring in their catches and later eat this delicious fresh fish in the restaurants. Sivota is a magical spot for people watching and enjoying boat hire. Located in a sheltered bay, the villa is sandwiched between hills covered in fragrant pines, cypress and olive trees and the deep blue Ionian Sea.

The stunning beach of Bella Vraka is just a short walk from Villa Bay View. Bella Vraka is on an island that you can wade to via a sandy causeway. Mikri Ammos Beach is another sandy wonder with one of the best beach clubs in the area. You will receive five star treatment, relaxing on the most beautiful day beds, eating delicious food and sipping the most amazing cocktails. There are also some amazing, atmospheric waterfront tavernas at the beach.

In this gorgeous region of mountains, rivers, forests and picturesque villages, the Riviera of Epirus also enjoys an interesting history that goes back to ancient times. The magical resort of Parga is only twenty miles away, one of the favourites of Epirus. Parga boasts a beautiful setting with gorgeous, colourful houses built on the slopes of a mountain and enjoying breathtaking sea views. It enjoys exotic sandy beaches with turquoise, warm waters and a splendid natural landscape. On the top of a lush hill above Parga Town sits the ruins of a Venetian castle and at the entrance of the port is a beautiful white church. The charming village of Perdika is only seven miles away. Visitors to this area enjoy exploring the atmospheric, traditional mountain villages.

A private sea taxi can take you from Sivota to the gorgeous island of Paxos in thirty minutes. Paxos is a small island of 19 sqkm covered with endless olive groves. The eastern coastline is gentle and the west is dramatic with cliffs, caves and arches. The main town, Gaios, is a picturesque village built around the port. On the north coast you can visit the village of Lakka and on the east is the very characterful village of Loggos.
