

Villa Maravilla

Region: Costa Tropical Sleeps: 11

Overview

A large and traditionally Spanish white building with dark wood features and picturesque balconies, arriving at Villa Maravilla feels like stepping onto a movie set. The two-story villa in La Herradura, Costa Tropical, is the perfect setting for anyone to base their holiday out of.

The living area is spacious, and well-lit by the natural lighting let in from large windows on the walls. Enjoy the incredible view as you make use of the window seat or sit back into one of the two cosy sofas and enjoy some TV in your downtime. Connect to the Wi-Fi to catch up with life back home and stream your favourite content right to your phone, all while enjoying the cooling sensation from the overhead ceiling fan.

Villa Maravilla benefits from 6 bedrooms across its two floors, all of which have air conditioning. On the entry floor, you will find two double bedrooms, one single bedroom and a shower room. Moving upstairs, there is a twin room, another double bedroom, and a family bathroom. Here you will also find the main suite, which benefits from a newly refurbished wet room. All of the bedrooms come with comfy pillows and large windows that let in lots of natural light so you can start your mornings feeling bright and fresh.

The kitchen is fully equipped with sleek grey furnishing and stainless-steel appliances. It comes with everything you need to make delicious food during your stay, including an oven, stove, microwave, and large fridge. Meals can be enjoyed inside on the large wooden dining table, or step outside onto the balcony and enjoy your meals al fresco in the outdoor dining area, sipping local wine as you take in the stunning ocean view before you.

There are a number of seating areas outside for use, including both sun loungers and outdoor sofas available on the balcony. Moving down to the pool, you will find further sun loungers primed and ready for you to lay back and catch a tan. To the side, there is a small swing seat, perfect for anyone looking for a moment of peace and a delightful spot to get stuck into a good book. The pool itself is welcoming and just for your use during your stay, even coming with solar heating to ensure a delightful swim.

Overall, Villa Maravilla is the perfect base of operations for friends or families looking to experience Costa Tropical. With lots of space to spread out across the villa and in close proximity to the beach and local town, Villa Maravilla looks forward to welcoming you.

Location & Local Information

Villa Maravilla is based in the La Herradura area of Costa Tropical, a warm and welcoming holiday destination loved by many. The villa is situated close to the ocean on an elevated level, providing an unobstructed view of the glistening ocean and the horizon beyond it.

The villa is close to the beach of La Herradura, as the warm sandy beach is less than a 20-minute walk from the villa doors. La Herradura, the local seaside town, has absolutely everything you need to accent your stay and make it simply wonderful. It has been called the most picturesque of Costa Tropical's seaside villages, and simply looking around at the gorgeous cliffs, bay, and nature will show you exactly why.

The beach is also lined with a number of restaurants and bars for you to explore and enjoy. They offer a range of food, including local delicacies and dishes as well as more familiar favourites. Whether you try something new or rely on the familiar, you are sure to leave with a smile on your face and a full belly.

Just southeast of Villa Maravilla, you will find the Marina Del Este, where you can take part in some sailing on the calm waters of the ocean or even sign up for diving lessons and explore the ocean if you're feeling active. If you fancy staying dry and on steady land, you can still stroll along the marina's edge and pop into one of the many much-loved waterfront restaurants and bars. Tuck into fresh fish cooked perfectly and listen to the sound of the ocean and the relaxing hum of the local area.

Anyone can appreciate the rich history on offer for exploration in La Herradura, as the bay was once a strategic port for both the Phoenicians and the Romans. Visit the La Herradura castle on the Western End of the town, an 18th Century monument built during Carlos III's reign. This is just one of the area's incredible historical gems that are just waiting for you to discover.

The area has an abundance of beautiful nature on offer, and as such, there are many different hiking areas and walking paths available for you to explore during your stay. One such route is along the Maro Cerro Gordo cliffs, a nature reserve home to an outstanding area of flora and fauna. Take a day to explore it, and perhaps even pack a picnic to stop and enjoy along the way as you overlook the ocean below.

There is a lot of fun to be had in Costa Tropical, and Villa Maravilla is perfectly situated to be your home away from home during your stay.

What we love

- The many different seating areas inside and outside mean it's easy to have a quiet moment to yourself, even if you're travelling as a big group
- The view of the ocean is unobstructed and looks right out of a magazine; you can't help but be stunned!
- The lovely private pool is already a great addition, but it's also solar heated, so always a delightful temperature!

What you should know...

- This property is perfect for families and groups of adults, but unfortunately, it doesn't accept groups of young people under 25
- The pool doesn't have a gate, so young children should be monitored when outside
