Location & Local Information

The beautiful Cap Maison resort sits on the northern tip of St. Lucia, overlooking the calm, turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea. From Hewanorra International Airport, the transfer takes around one hour and forty five minutes, with the scenic journey winding through the island's dramatic hillsides, lush forests and colourful villages. If you are arriving by cruise ship or via a regional Caribbean flight, you will likely land closer to Castries, which is around a 30 minute drive from Cap Maison.

Once at the resort, you are just a short walk from the charming Smugglers Cove. This peaceful sandy beach opens onto clear, gentle waters where both adults and children enjoy snorkelling among the reefs and spotting the marine life that thrives here.

Beyond the resort, there is plenty to explore. Keen golfers will find several excellent courses within easy driving distance, while nature lovers should not miss Pigeon Island National Park, located around ten minutes away. This historic and scenic peninsula offers walking trails, panoramic viewpoints and beautiful beaches, along with vibrant coral reefs just offshore.

A little further along the coast lies Rodney Bay, a lively waterfront town known for its restaurants, relaxed nightlife and beautiful beaches such as Reduit Beach, making it a wonderful spot for a day out.

What we love

- The rooftop terrace and pool are perfect for making the most of the sun
- Although Cap Maison is quite set remote, the towns of Rodney Bay and Gros Islet are only a 15-minute drive away
- We loved being able to book a private chef for the villa, allowing us to enjoy a romantic restaurant-quality meal without having to leave the villa

What you should know...

- Use of additional facilities around Cap Maison, such as the restaurants, may incur additional charges
- The rooftop pool is relatively short in length and more of a plunge-style pool rather than a swimming pool
- Cap Maison is a relatively quiet resort so it may not be a suitable choice for groups looking for a lively villa break
