

Oasis Rhodes

Region: Rhodes Sleeps: 10

Overview

Get back to nature with a holiday in Villa Oasis Rhodes, a Tuscan style villa in the heart of the Greek countryside, in the exclusive village of Koskinou. This stunning semi-detached villa has five bedrooms and four bathrooms, and can comfortably accommodate up to ten guests, ideal for a family holiday, or friend's get together.

Built partly with local stone, and partly burnt sienna brick, the villa has a separate entrance with parking spaces for up to four cars, and comes with complimentary Wi-Fi and air-conditioning throughout. The villa is set in a large formal garden with mountain views, verdant green lawns, and is surrounded by vineyards, and a small forest, which gives it a sense of privacy and seclusion. Villa Oasis Rhodes has been thoughtfully designed and furnished throughout by the owners, using local craftsmen and materials, to create an authentic and stylish home-from-home vacation villa. The colour palette is one of white and beige neutrals, with splashes of traditional Mediterranean blues and sunshine lemon highlights.

Enter the villa through your own private entrance to a holiday of open plan living. The seating area has a neutral beige wrap around L-shaped sofa, with wood and white coffee tables, a flat screen television, and an enclosed glass fronted wood burner for those cooler months and evenings. The adjacent dining area has a round white dining table and five chairs, and an upright piano, perfect for some indoor entertaining. The white and brick country style kitchen is fully equipped with everything you will need to cater for your holiday, including an island preparation station with hob, a family size fridge freezer, the obligatory morning coffee maker, and if you feel inclined there's a bread making machine too.

Take the marble stairs up to the first floor, where you will find four spacious light and airy double bedrooms, all with walk-in closets, and garden view furnished balconies. The rooms are decorated in cool white with floaty net bed and window drapes, with touches of blue and yellow, dressed with three hundred cotton thread count linen, and Egyptian cotton embossed hand and bath towels. Three of the rooms have double beds, and one has two twin beds. There are three large marble bathrooms, with either walk-in or sit-in showers. A separate studio apartment is home to the fifth double bedroom, its own living area, kitchen and bathroom, and private patio.

Villa Oasis Rhodes is set in its own well-maintained grounds, with gorgeous green lawns, and a private pool with a shallow end for easy entry and safe for young children to play and splash. The pool is surrounded by sun loungers, and a turquoise blue soft seating area where you can relax and enjoy a morning coffee or sundowner at sun set. There is a specially designed outdoor stone dining area with padded cushions and chairs and an impressive table to seat up to ten guests. Perfect for a barbeque of the local delicacies, dining under the twinkling stars with a view of the mountains.

Location & Local Information

Oasis Rhodes is located in the exclusive residential area of Koskinou, in the north of the beautiful Greek island of Rhodes. Rhodes is the jewel in the crown of the Dodecanese Islands, set in the Southern Aegean Sea, Greece. The villa is just eleven kilometres from Rhodes' Diagoras International airport, a short twenty minute journey away. Just a short away there are local mini markets for daily provisions and cute cafes for a morning coffee and evening retsina. Whilst the main road of Leoforas Lindou Street, which cuts across the island from north to south, is within a few minutes drive, which will get you anywhere you would like to go.

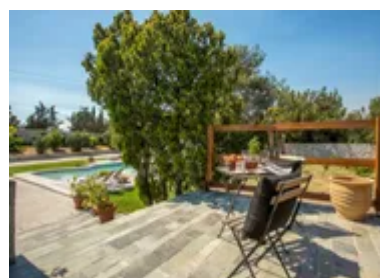

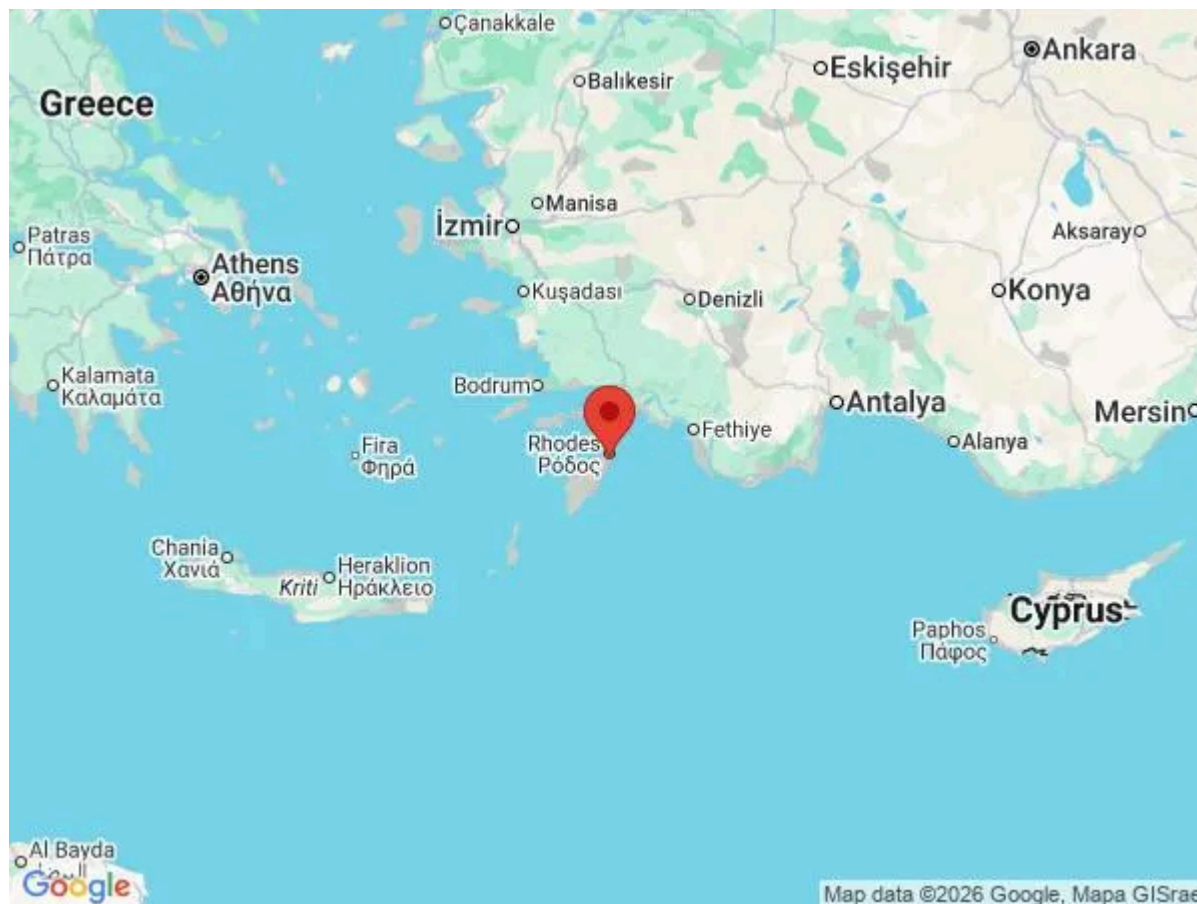

There are five famous beautiful family-friendly beaches within a three kilometre radius, starting with Faliraki at 2km, then Oasis, Kalithea, Kokkina, and the furthest away Agia Marina at 2.7km. Local sights that are just a short drive from the villa include Kalithea Springs, Rhodes Waterpark, Rodini Park, Diagoras Stadium, Andreas Papandreou Park, and the Acropolis of Rhodes. Some of the very best sight seeing can be done for free and on two legs with the many and varied walks in nature. The area is surrounded by trails and treks or go further afield on some guided walks around the island to discover the breadth of the indigenous flora and fauna. Rhodes really is a walker's island with almost 14 000 square kilometres to explore, through forests, up mountains, discovering ancient sites, and maybe stopping at a welcoming village taverna to sample the local wine, honey, and herbs, along the way.

The ancient town of Rhodes is seven kilometres from the villa, and well worth a visit. The old town of Rhodes has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and as you wander the narrow lanes, old streets, and fortifications you'll see why. Rhodes' history has been influenced by the Knights of St John, and Venetian and Ottoman conquests. Don't miss a visit to the Palace of the Grand Masters, the Castle of Monolithos, the Suleyamniye Mosque, the Archaeological Museum, the Museum of Modern Greek Art, and the many ornate churches, and count the eleven gates as you make your way around the old town. If you can't pound the pavements, you can take a Segway tour, or stop for refreshment in a traditional taverna and sip an ouzo as you watch the world go by.

For the adventurous rent a quad bike, or join a jeep safari and take a tour of the island, climb aboard a high-speed boat to the lovely island of Lindos, or relax with a spot of fishing at Makarounas. If fishing isn't your thing, you can admire a myriad of marine creatures indoors at the Aquarium of Rhodes. And for those who really want to go further afield, get island hopping and take the Rhodes ferry to far flung places, including crossing continents to the cosmopolitan town of Fethiye on the Turkish Turquoise coast.
