Those looking for privacy and tranquillity can look no further as the house is surrounded by a luscious green landscape, where it will feel as if you have the countryside to yourselves.

Inside, the living area comfortably seats six people, whilst the kitchen has everything you need to prepare fresh, local produce, including a ceramic hob, electric oven, toaster, microwave, washing machine and fridge freezer.

A door from the kitchen leads to a covered dining terrace overlooking the pool area. Walking through the house from the kitchen, you'll find a cozy living area with a sofa bed, TV, DVD player, and a wood-burning fire for chilly nights.

Downstairs, there's a double bedroom with terracotta tiled floors and wood-beamed ceilings. Enjoy your morning coffee in bed with natural sunlight streaming in. A modern bathroom with a shower and sink is also on this floor, providing all necessary comforts.

Outside, there's an outdoor seating area by the front door where guests can relax with a glass of wine. Location & Local Information

Can Tereu is located near Pollença, a quaint town in Northeast Mallorca, and just a short drive from Port d'Alcudia.

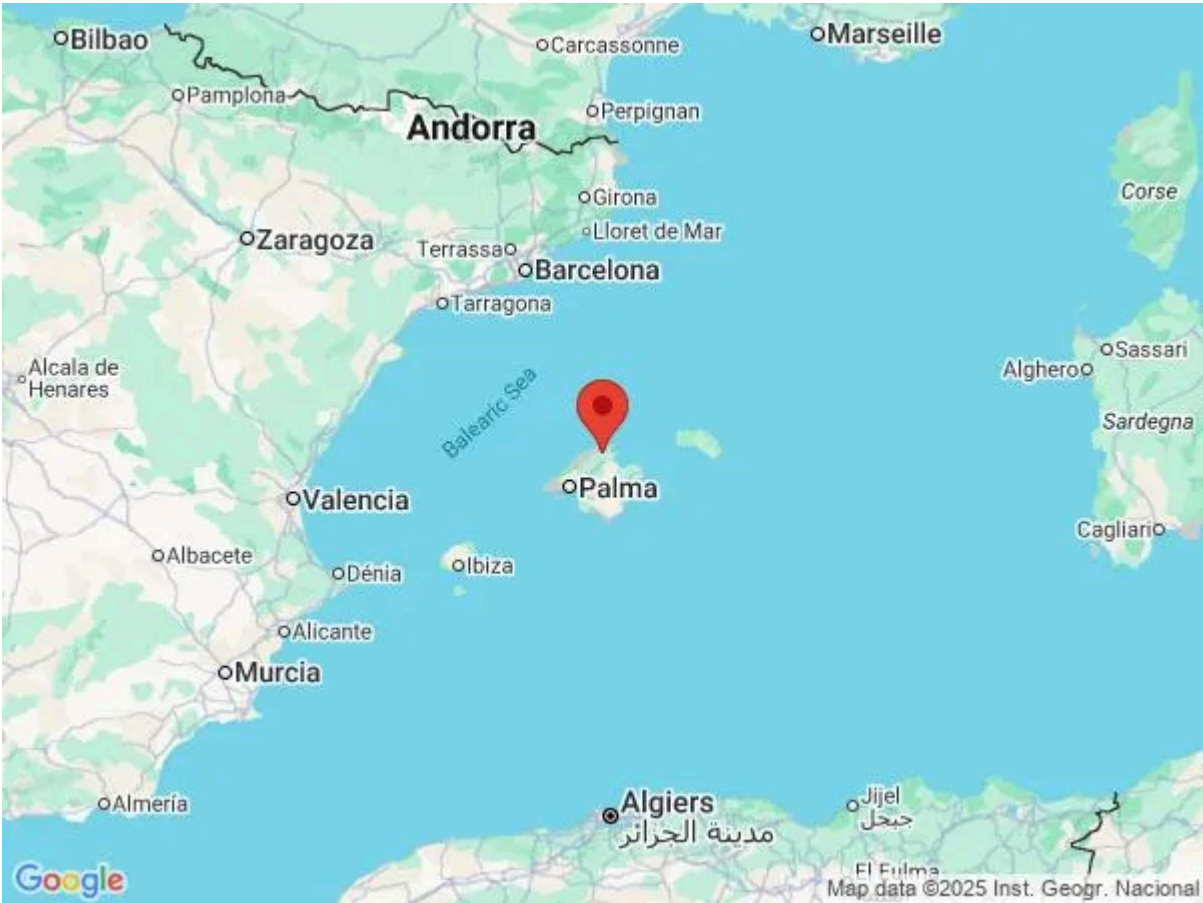

Pollença is an old town with a rich history evident in its narrow streets, landmarks such as the 'Pont Romà' bridge, dating back to Roman times, and the Santuari de la Mare church, all great starting points to learn about the town's history, tracing back to the Knights Templar era. On Sundays, the town square comes alive with market stalls and locals enjoying coffee after church.

Other historic sites include a former Jesuit convent, now the town hall, and the Calvari church. If you're feeling active, you can climb the 365 steps to see the amazing panoramic views of the town and Bay of Pollença.

Nearby is Port de Pollença, boasting a beautiful beach with golden sand, sun loungers, and parasols. The Pine Walk, along the coast, also offers scenic views and access to sandy coves and beaches.
