

Maison Caliopa

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 6

Overview

Close to the perfume capital of France, this elegant villa is ideal for guests wishing to explore the beauty of the Côte d'Azur whilst being only half-an-hour from the glitz and glamour of the French Riviera coastline.

Maison Caliopa is a modern home with a well-styled living space and contemporary comforts such as a Smart TV and air-conditioning throughout. Sliding doors lead out to the poolside terrace and heated swimming pool whilst the covered terrace and summer kitchen makes al-fresco dining a real treat.

Ideal for up to six adults, each of the three double bedrooms has its own bath or shower room as well as doors leading to the garden or upper balcony.

There is also a fitness room and sauna, not to mention the well-tended garden and boules court outside.

Set in a hillside position, it's around 2km to reach the heart of Grasse with its historic charm, medieval lanes and rich perfume heritage. Visit one of the famous perfume studios or museums, admire the daily flower market and eat out in characterful cafes or restaurants. Visit other idyllic villages close by including nearby Cabris, one of France's officially classified 'Plus Beaux Villages'.

Location & Local Information

In the Côte d'Azur hinterland, just outside the gorgeous town of Grasse, Maison Caliopa is around a 30-minute drive from Cannes and the glorious beaches of the French Riviera.

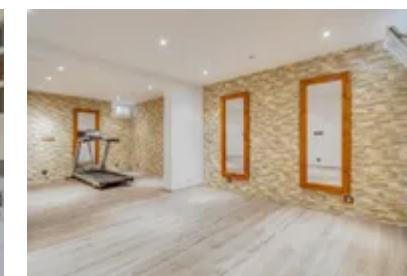

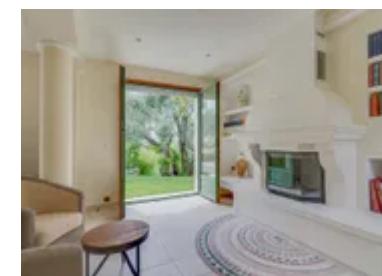

Set in a semi-residential area, perched slightly above a country road, you reach the heart of Grasse in around 2km by car. It's such a beautiful town with a rich heritage, known as the perfume capital of France – take time to visit one of the town's perfume studios or factories. The old quarter is a joy to explore with medieval lanes, pretty squares, the morning flower market and a wealth of characterful places to eat and shop.

Discover the surrounding region, passing hills of cypress, pine and olive trees, coming across picture-perfect villages such as Opio, Cabris and Spéracèdes. A little further, stunning Gourdon (12km) is a paradise for walkers or venture to the nearby Gorges du Loup and its waterfalls.

The market town of Valbonne (10km) is a must for foodies on a Friday morning whilst art-lovers will adore the idyllic perched villages of Vence and St Paul de Vence, both just over half-an-hour away. Heading down towards the coast, stop off for lunch in one of Mougins' gastronomic restaurants, a flower-filled village famed for its associations with Picasso, before travelling down to Cannes (18km) with its glamourous vibe, vibrant markets and palm-fringed shores.

Yet more fantastic beaches can be found in the chic resort of Juan-les-Pins (23km) whilst keen walkers will appreciate the incredible scenery of Cap d'Antibes with its little bays and coastal paths. The old town of Antibes (23km) is full of historic charm and well-worth a visit and those feeling adventurous can enjoy a variety of boat trips and watersports.
