Location & Local Information

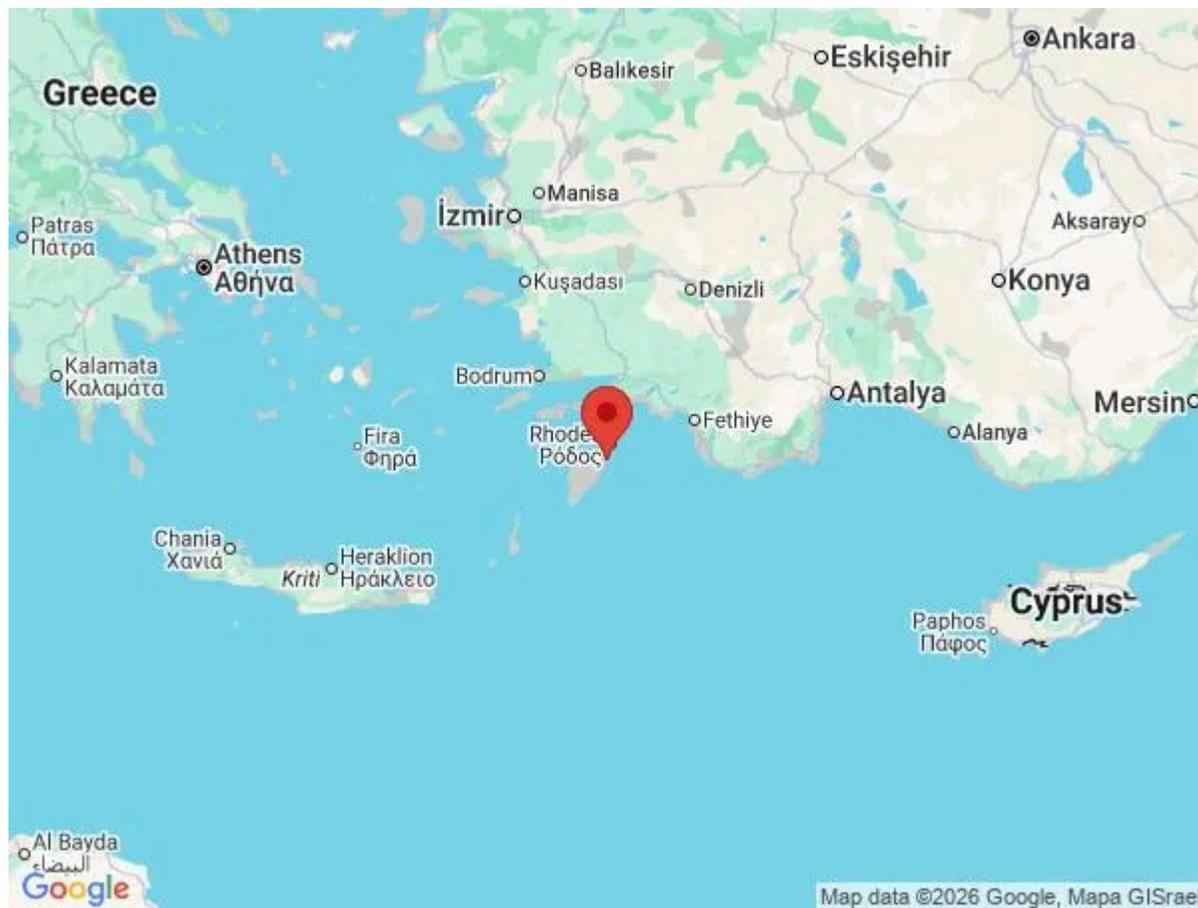

Villa Cupido is located in Afantou village, just a four-minute drive from the beautiful Afantou beach. Nearby you will find all the necessary urban conveniences, with supermarkets, pharmacies, bars, restaurants, and car rentals. The whole village feels peaceful and calming, the perfect retreat from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life.

Beyond the tranquillity of the villa and charm of the village, the island of Rhodes has endless surprises and delights to offer. As one of the larger Greek islands, there is plenty to do, yet it is small enough that you can fit nearly everything into one trip.

The buzzing capital city of the island is Rhodes, and its medieval Old Town is a must visit during your stay. Found in the northeast of the island, the charm and history of the town has been well preserved, with the modern additions of restaurants, bars, and shops, dotted around the winding streets. One of the top sites, is the Palace of the Grand Masters. Visitors can explore this mighty fortress and its rich history. Within the complex, you will find the Rhodes' Archaeological Museum, as well as various exhibitions and performances that are hosted through the year. Mandraki Port is fantastic to walk around, and you can visit Rhodes Aquarium or Elli Beach, both within easy walking distance of the town. Rhodes city is also the centre of the island's nightlife. The huge casino stays open late into the night, and there's clubbing and lively bars on Orfanidou Street and, in the Old Town, Miltiadou Street.

When you want a break from the towns and cities, there is plenty to enjoy in the surrounding countryside. The Valley of the Butterflies is one of the best-loved attractions on the island. The best time to visit is in the summer months. The Epta Piges (Seven Springs) are another highlight, with peaceful wooded areas, a lake, and impressive waterfalls.

Of course, the beaches are a big part of any holiday in Rhodes. Afantou beach is your go to from the villa. Further south, there's Prasonisi, a great beach for watersports, and the landmark lighthouse which sits right at the tip of the island. The beaches of the west coast also offer good conditions for sports like windsurfing.
