

Casa Castera

Region: Southern Corsica Sleeps: 10

Overview

This comfortable and elegantly designed modern air-conditioned villa offers accommodation for up to ten guests and has stunning rural views. It is situated close to the attractive seaside village of Cargèse on the west coast of the magnificent island of Corsica, north of Ajaccio.

Downstairs, a well-equipped kitchen stands adjacent to the large dining table from which you glide gracefully round into the smart living area and onwards towards a games area. The sense of space in this light-filled open plan area is beautifully enhanced by the high white vaulted ceiling.

The characterful mezzanine level above is cleverly designed to hold four single beds - this would be a fun place for a group of older children or teenagers to sleep. There are three lovely and more conventional en suite double bedrooms downstairs, one with views of the pool.

There is a beautiful garden and a large terrace with superb far stretching rural views, just perfect for an al fresco evening meal around the barbecue as you watch the sun set on the horizon. The swimming pool, artistically designed to look as natural as possible, blends beautifully into the grounds towards the landscape of olive trees and wooded hills beyond.

Cargèse, a short drive away, is an attractive town of blue shuttered white houses in a picturesque setting overlooking the deep blue waters of the Gulf of Sagone. It has a fascinating history and was founded by Greek immigrants in the 17th century with two beautiful Latin and Greek churches facing each other high up above the sea.

Cargèse has an easily accessible sandy main beach, a huge range of summer water sports and there are other beaches to explore locally around the bay. You may be tempted to navigate the winding route towards Piana and beyond to see the amazing rock formations of the Calanches or more simply view it from one of the great boat trips which will also whisk you away to the wonderful Scandola Nature Reserve, sometimes with a swimming stop along the way.

Location & Local Information

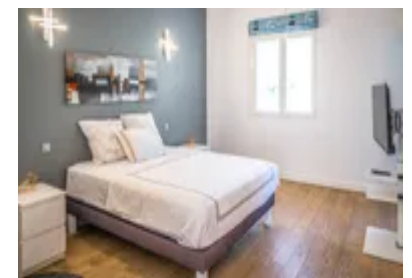

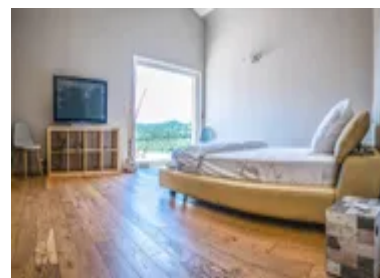

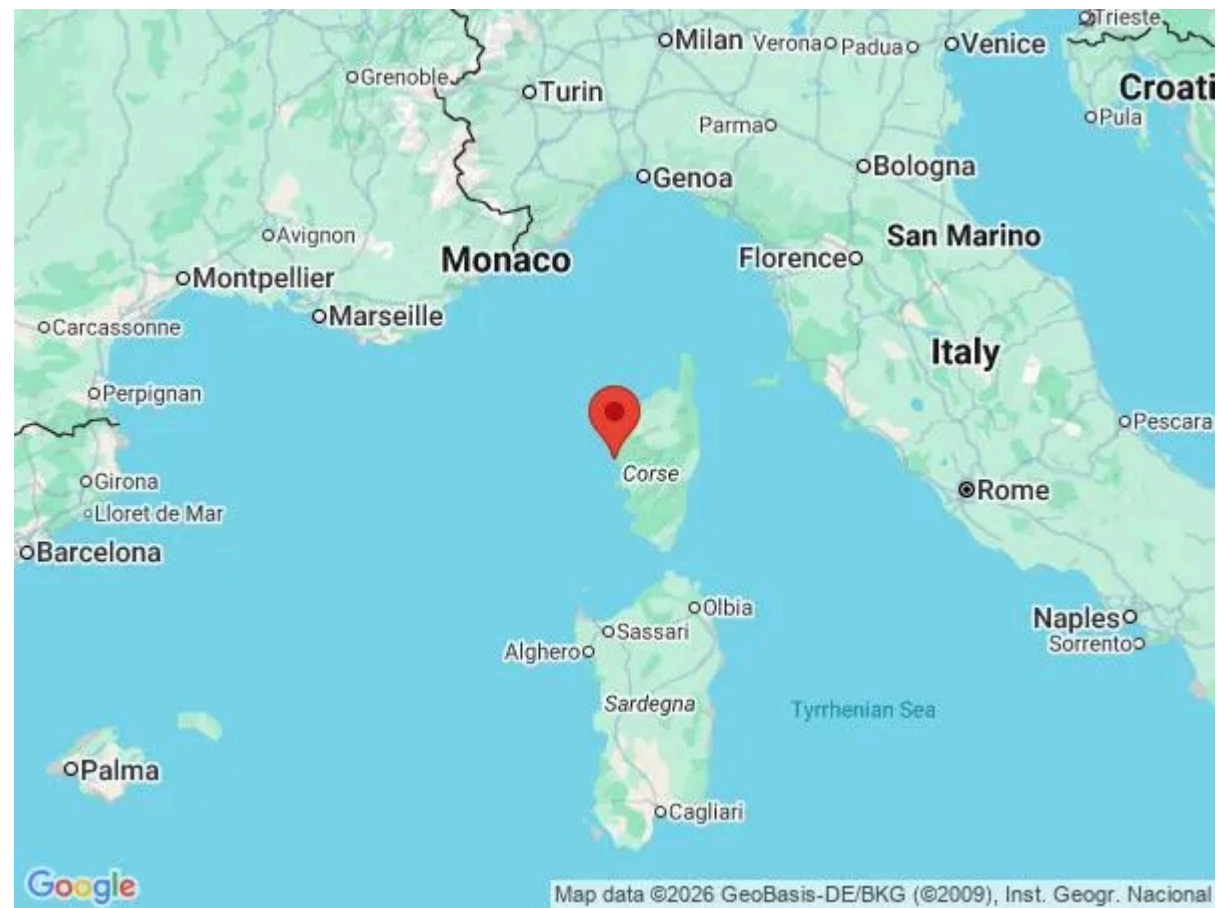

Casa Castera is situated 2.5km inland from Cargèse, a popular seaside resort on the west coast of Corsica between Ajaccio and Porto. The villa is surrounded by a small handful of neighbours and has stunning rural views, located just off the road heading north and within 250m of a local supermarket.

Cargèse is an attractive town of white houses with blue shutters in a picturesque setting overlooking the deep blue waters of the Gulf of Sagone. Founded by Greek immigrants in the 17th century, it is best known for its two Greek and Latin churches, the Church of St. Spyridon and the Church of the Assumption, dramatically facing each other with their bell towers against the sky.

Roads are often narrow and winding, especially north of Piana, so car travel might take longer than expected. Start your holiday locally in Cargèse enjoying its restaurants and sandy beaches - the Plage de Peru just north of the town is one of the best and most accessible. There are plenty of opportunities here for summer watersports and activities such as paddle boarding, jet skiing, scuba diving, snorkelling, fishing and speed boat trips.

Walkers will enjoy the scenic circular walk to Cargèse Hafen or the slightly more challenging 7 mile hike to the ruins of the Genoese Tower of Omigna. An easy way to view the landscape is to take a boat trip from Cargèse around the gulf of Sagone and along the coast. There is a semi rigid inflatable boat which visits the wonderful Scandola Nature Reserve, the old fishing village of Girolata and the dramatic Piana creeks, with a welcome swimming break along the way.

The Scandola Nature Marine and Terrestrial Reserve has regulated access, only possible by sea. It is part of the regional natural park of Corsica and is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Along the cliffs with their small caves and amazing rock formations, you may spot an osprey or peregrine falcon.

The Calanches di Piana, around 19kms northwards, is an unusual rocky landscape south of Porto where the coastal red granite rocks rise dramatically 400m above sea level next to the blue sea and green pines. There are several amazing trails here for experienced hikers and a mountain biking section between Piana and Porto.

Intrepid drivers only may now be tempted to take the car further afield. Heading northwards along the D81, the Calanques de Piana is a very narrow, winding and often busy scenic balcony road (road cyclists go off season), said to be one of the greatest and most challenging drives in Europe.

Alternatively, drive the 53km southwards to the very pleasant port city of Ajaccio, the birthplace of Napoleon with its many statues, restaurants, bars, museum and airport to remind you of this famous French leader. It has great shops, a lively daily market, picturesque boulevards and tree lined squares.
