Location & Local Information

Puerto Calero has grown to be a very popular tourist destination due to its much-loved attractions and fascinating history. This region is also well recognised for its wealth of sapphire blue water, making it a perfect location for scuba diving. Organisations such as Active Scuba Divers provide guests with a wide range of courses to choose from, allowing them to embark on an underwater adventure like never before. During every dive, guests will be paired alongside an expertly trained instructor who will guide them through the basic principles of the sport to ensure that they feel safe and secure at all times. Once they feel fully prepared, guests will then submerge themselves underwater and will have the chance to revel in a variety of beautiful marine wildlife. Active Scuba Divers can be found just under 5-minutes away from the centre of Puerto Calero.

If you are an avid wine lover, a trip to Bodega Guiguan is a must-do activity. This acclaimed winery uses the richness of Lanzarote's volcanic soil to help talented winemakers to craft a delectable glass of wine each and every time. This establishment is also known for its use of home-grown produce, making its products incredibly authentic and a key part of Puerto Calero's culture. Guests are invited to take a guided tour of these expansive grounds and discover more about the inner workings of this archaic industry. They can also indulge in a range of samples, giving them a true taste of this region. Bodega Guiguan is located just over 20-minutes away from the centre of the region.

This area is home to a divine selection of impeccable beaches, such as Puerto del Carmen beach, which is situated just over 10-minutes away. This incredible landmark is teeming with soft golden sand and crystal-clear water, allowing guests to marvel at an assortment of natural elements. Guests are free to stroll along the sand as they observe the picturesque beauty of the entire space. Once you have built up a ferocious appetite, you can take a short walk into the local promenade. Here, you will discover a variety of bars and restaurants, giving you the perfect excuse to indulge in a few local delicacies.
