Can Bequer

Region: Menorca Sleeps: 6

Overview

A well-positioned villa in Binibeca, Can Bequer offers an inviting base to enjoy its surroundings in comfort. The central swimming pool is a standout feature, set within neatly kept grounds and complemented by a selection of sun loungers, ideal for both relaxing in the sun and cooling off throughout the day. A series of outdoor terraces extends the living space, providing an easy setting for al fresco dining and making the most of the outdoor environment.

Inside, the villa presents a traditional style that feels both welcoming and practical. The living area is arranged with wooden-framed seating and red cushions, creating a comfortable space to unwind. Nearby, the dining area continues this theme with a wooden table and matching chairs, offering a sociable setting for shared meals. The kitchen is fitted with wooden cupboards and granite worktops, giving guests a well-equipped space to prepare and serve meals with ease.

The ground floor accommodates three bedrooms, each with its own character. The main bedroom features a double bed with a pink duvet, while the remaining two bedrooms are arranged with twin single beds, making them a flexible option for families with children.

Location & Local Information

Binibeca is an elegant and characterful part of Menorca, well suited to visitors looking to explore beyond the immediate surroundings. For those drawn to walking routes, the Cami de Cavalls offers an extensive 185km coastal trail, allowing you to experience the island at your own pace. The route passes a number of well-known spots, including Cala Galdana and Cala Macarelleta, making it a practical way to take in a variety of locations.

Just over five minutes from the centre, Binibeca Vell offers a distinctive setting defined by its whitewashed houses and compact layout. Built between the late 1960s and early 1970s, the village has fewer than 170 properties, giving it a more contained feel. Its cobbled paths lead through a selection of local restaurants and bars, providing an easy way to explore the area and experience its atmosphere.

The region is also known for its varied food scene, with a range of options to suit different tastes. El Faro focuses on traditional Mediterranean and Menorcan dishes, including caldereta, a lobster-based speciality prepared with aromatic spices. For dessert, options such as chocolate cake with homemade ice cream provide a straightforward finish to the meal.

What we love

- The private pool, complete with sun loungers and several outdoor terraces, offers a perfect setting for relaxing in the sun or dining outside
- Located in Binibeca, Can Bequer provides easy access to Binibeca Vell, where whitewashed houses, cobbled streets, and a selection of cafés and boutiques create a distinctive local setting
- The property is well placed for exploring the coastline via the Cami de Cavalls, a well-known trail that passes a range of coastal locations, including Cala Galdana and Cala Macarelleta

What you should know...

- There are no handrails leading into the pool, so children must be supervised
- Please note that air conditioning is only available in the lounge/dining area and corridor
- We recommend hiring a car to explore this beautiful region
