Location & Local Information

Marbella, renowned for its captivating attractions, holds Iglesias de Encarnacion as a prominent landmark. Initially a Mosque serving Marbella's Moorish population, it was transformed during the Christian reconquest, showcasing exquisite Baroque décor and artifacts. Nestled in Marbella's Old Town, visitors can explore its elegance while wandering through the charming streets and enjoying a meal at Plaza de Los Naranjos, just a thirty-minute drive from Villa Flamingo Estrella.

The Museum of Spanish Contemporary Engraving, a local treasure near Marbella's center, boasts a collection of 4,000 engravings, including works by Goya, Picasso, Miro, and Dali. Housed in the historic Bazan Hospital building, it annually hosts the National Engraving Awards, celebrating this ancient art form's vibrancy.

For golf enthusiasts, Los Naranjos Golf offers an exceptional experience, founded in 1977 and designed by Robert Trent Jones Sr. With its acclaimed tournaments and scenic 18-hole course, guests can immerse themselves in the beauty of the game. Villa Flamingo Estrella guests enjoy full membership to Los Flamings Golf Resort, ensuring a seamless transition from play to relaxation at the on-site restaurant.
